Truman Sounds Warning

President in a Galesburg Talk Makes It Assailing The 'Isolationists'

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN, May 8—(AP)—President Truman, declared today that the decisions the United States makes in the months ahead will determine whether there will be "a third world war."

In a talk to a train side crowd at Galesburg, Ill., the President assailed "isolationists" who would "let the rest of the world be swallowed up by Communism."

These men, Mr. Truman asserted, cannot "see beyond their noses." And forget "the terrible price" this country would have to pay for such a course.

"These same men who tell you we should economize by an isolationist policy," he said, "did the same thing after World War One and brought on 'World War Two.'"

We will have a third world war, if we "renege" on our allies, Mr. Truman said, just as "Russia is renege on her allies."

Speaking on the fifth anniversary of his proclamation, of Allied victory over Nazi Germany, the president devoted much of his first "whistle stop" speech to a warning on the critical foreign situation.

Defending his so-called "non-political" cross-country speaking trip, which has been assailed by some Republicans, Mr. Truman said he is making "a report to the people" as he has "every right" and "privilege" to do.

Trip To Discuss Issues

He said he was making the trip to discuss "issues" and that he welcomed a discussion of "issues" and "not foolishness."

A next world war he warned, would not be fought entirely on foreign soil.

He said isolationists in this country are "helping Russia." He took a slap at the Republicans in his back platform talk. He told of wearing a white cap to school in Independence, Mo., in 1892 bearing the label "Cleveland-Stephenson."

Some "big Republican" boys took his cap away from him and "tore it up," he said.

"The Republicans have been trying to do that to me ever since," he said with his best campaign grin.

The course of the free nations, the president asserted, "is threatened all over the world" by "totalitarianism."

He said he is trying to "work out" with other free nations, a course that will preserve their "democracy and freedom."

"The decisions we make in the next few months, will determine whether there will be a third world war," he added.

The president's address was broadcast locally.

Rousing Send Off

The crowd listened to the president respectfully but found few opportunities to cheer until he got a rousing send off at the close of his talk. Galesburg, in West Central, Ill., is usually heavily Republican.

A huge four-tiered cellophane wrapped cake was handed up to the president and Mrs. Truman, who came out on the platform at that moment.

When Margaret Truman appeared members of the crowd exclaimed "isn't she pretty?"

A crowd estimated by country Democratic chairman B. L. Robinson at 15,000 turned out to greet the president at Burlington where his train made the first of four scheduled stops in Iowa.

In a rear platform appearance there, Mr. Truman spoke to his listeners about the work of the 81st congress. He said it had done a better job than the 80th congress and that when its work is finished the record will be better still.

In an reference to agricultural and labor problems the president declared that the income of farmers will remain high only if labor's wages are high too.

Introduces Wife and Daughter
The crowd cheered as Mr. Truman introduced his wife and daughter, Margaret, who are traveling on the special train.

Mr. Truman, traveling in campaign style through the midwest on his 66th birthday, led newsmen on their toughest walk to date at Chicago today.

It was 6 a. m., Chicago time (7 a. m. CST) when the president's (Please turn to Page 6, Column 1)

Not Inclined For Special Session

JEFFERSON CITY, May 8—(AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith said today it is "highly improbable" he will call a special session of the Missouri Legislature.

"You can put it that way," he told his news conference.

The governor said he had received a formal request from Mayor Joseph M. Darst, asking that a special session be called to extend the $7,000,000 a year St. Louis earnings tax. But Smith said he had not made final decision on it.

Then, in a general discussion of the problem, he made four points, all indicating he is not sold on the special session idea.

He granted that more money would be desirable to run the city, but:

(1) Bankers have told the governor they would let the city borrow money if necessary "at a ridiculously low rate of interest—under one per cent."

(2) The city has about $14,000,000 in its water fund. "They have been reaching into it and they can still do that if they want to."

(3) Outstate senators and representatives have told the governor they would not favor extending the present earnings tax unless it were submitted to a vote of the people at a referendum election.

(4) All the legislators felt about the same—if the earnings tax extension bill could not pass during all of last year's session, it could not pass now without a long drawn out fight in this election year.

Unless the one-half of one per cent tax is renewed, it will expire July 17.

Furious Storm Of Three Days Has Subsided

Toll of 25 or More Dead; Floods In Its Wake

By The Associated Press

The furious three-day storm which killed at least 25 persons and cut a wide swath of destruction has blown itself out but flood damage continues mounting in Minnesota, North Dakota and across Canada to Winnipeg.

Unexpected squalls lashed the northeast and left 20 boatmen dead or missing in lakes, rivers and along the coastline of New York and New England.

At least 10 of the dead or missing were in upper New York state, seven in New York City and Long Island sound, and three in New England. About 40 other persons were rescued in the New York area as hundreds of small boats were flipped over by gusts of wind which measured 65 miles an hour.

The worst of the flood was at Winnipeg, Can., where the Red River had overflowed hundreds of blocks of the city and forced more than 4,400 persons from 2,000 homes.

The river was nine feet above flood stage and expected to rise even higher, perhaps another four feet when the crest hits the city of 350,000.

Crookston, Minn., was hit yesterday for the second time within two weeks by a flood of the Red-lake river. About 500 homes were evacuated.

The weather continued uncomfortably cool throughout the flood area. More rain, snow and some sleet were reported in North Dakota, Montana, Wyoming and western Nebraska and South Dakota today.

Some parts of the wheat belt where moisture is nearly always welcome also reported showers and thunderstorms today. At Concordia, Kas., the rain measured an inch and a half. Other rainfall reports came from Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and eastern South Dakota.

Elsewhere over the nation, the weather generally was fair and in (Please Turn to Page 6, Col 1)

Loan Years Ago Repaid Truman

BURLINGTON, Ia., May 8—(AP)—A twenty-five dollar loan which President Truman made in 1918 to a cook in his World War One artillery outfit was repaid to him with interest today.

Elmer Van Tine, employee of the Iowa Ordnance plant in Burlington, returned the money when the president's special train made its first Iowa stop here.

Van Tine handed Mr. Truman a check for $50, explaining half of it was interest. He borrowed the $25 after the armistice in 1918 so he could make a trip to Kansas City to join the Shrine with Mr. Truman.

The president accepted the check and told Van Tine: "Thank you. You didn't have to do this."

Oath Is Upheld By Law

Legality as Being Non-Communist Is Declared by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld legality of the non-Communist oath provision of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

The provision requires that union officials must file affidavits saying they are not Communists, if they wish to use machinery of the National Labor board.

Chief Justice Vinson delivered the opinion for the majority. Justice Jackson wrote an opinion which concurred in part and dissented in part. Justice Black wrote a dissenting opinion. Justice Frankfurter wrote an opinion concurring in part with the majority. Justices Douglas, Clark and Minton took no part in the cases.

Justices Reed and Burton completed the majority.

Attacked in Appeals
Validity of the non-Communist oath provision was attacked in separate appeals filed by two unions. They are:

(A) The anti-Communist CIO United Steelworkers headed by CIO president Philip Murray.

(B) The American Communications Association, awaiting outcome of a CIO expulsion hearing on the grounds of Communist sympathies.

Each of the unions contended the affidavit requirement violates the constitution's guarantees of free speech, press and assembly.

As phrased in the Taft-Hartley act, the oath reads:

"I am not a member of the Communist party, or affiliated with such party. I do not believe in and I am not a member of, nor do I support, any organization that believes in or teaches the overthrow of the United States government by force or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods."

Acheson Talks With Schuman

Discussion Had To Do With The Indo-China Issue

By the Associated Press

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson talked to French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman in Paris today in the first of his preparatory cold war talks before the big-three conference in London Thursday.

Acheson's meeting with Schuman was said to have dealt primarily with France's role in Indo-China. Diplomatic informants said he will ask for guarantees that the French-controlled regime of former Emperor Bao Dai be given genuine independence as a condition for speedy American aid in fighting off the Moscow-recognized opposition government of Ho Chi Minh.

It was not believed that any final decision would be made in the Paris talks. Acheson is also expected to discuss France's attitude toward Germany and Premier Georges Bidault's recent proposal to form a new "Atlantic council" for coordinating economic and political activities of the Western nations as well as military defenses against possible Communist expansion.

Aid Be Limited
Acheson's offer of aid for Indo-China is limited at present to the $15,000,000 President Truman has promised out of the $75,000,000 fund Congress appropriated for emergencies in fighting Communism in the Far East.

Some officials in Washington look for a formal announcement that the United States has started its long-awaited program of arms assistance for southeast Asia—including Indo-China—within the next few days.

The Finnish government averted a threatened general strike by offering a 15 percent wage boost today. The compromise offer came just three hours before the Socialist-led Trade Union Council's deadline. The TUC gave out the strike ultimatum last week after Premier Urho Kekkonen's government drafted striking railway engineers into military service. The draft order was rescinded Saturday.

Senator Anastasio Somoza was named today by the Nicaraguan Congress to fill out the term of President Victor Manuel Romayon Reyes, who died Saturday in Philadelphia. The term ends in May, 1951.

Child Injured When Dragged By Bus

MOBERLY, Mo., May 8—(AP)—Phyllis Dailey, 8, suffered shock, severe abrasions and a deep head laceration here Saturday while being dragged a half-mile by a school bus.

The child's coat became entangled in the rear bumper of the vehicle when she alighted. She was dragged along the gravel road until the bus stopped to discharge another passenger.

Eyes of Nation On Rackets Probe

KANSAS CITY, May 8—(AP)—A Jackson county grand jury was told today that the eyes of the nation will be turned on it during its investigation of rackets in Kansas City and the county.

The jury was called after a federal grand jury investigating rackets, released an interim report a week ago listing law violations coming under state but not federal laws.

However, in his charge to the jury, Circuit Judge Ray G. Cowan did not refer to the federal grand jury's report exposing the gambling and charging a tax-fixing graft in the county assessor's office under the administration of George R. Clark.

Senn Lawler, a movie chain executive, was named foreman of the jury of 10 men and two women.

"In the light of the nation-wide publicity which has spot-lighted Kansas City and Jackson county in recent weeks, the eyes of your fellow citizens as well as the nation will be focused on you during the entire period of your service," the judge told the jurors. "Saying there have been 'many rumors' relating to the breakdown of law enforcement here, Judge Cowan called on the jury to 'check into each and everyone of these rumors and ascertain if any law enforcement officers have been negligent in fulfilling their prescribed responsibility.'"

Explosion Wrecks Lumber Yard Office

KANSAS CITY, May 8—(AP)—An explosion ripped through lumber yard office here yesterday, seconds after a night watchman fled from the building. The watchman, Henry Finkey, was not injured.

Police quoted Finkey as saying he ran from the building shortly after an object was thrown through a window in the office. Officers said he described the object as four sticks of dynamite, taped together, with a burning fuse attached.

Damage was confined to the office of the firm, the Sutherland Lumber Co.

The two units from Sedalia were the First Baptist church, Troop 52, and Calvary Episcopal church, Troop 63. About 35 Scouts went from the two units accompanied by Charles Hoefheims, Scoutmaster of Troop 52, and Harold Painter and John Brooks, leaders of Troop 63.

The Scouts participated in activities of scouting skills and camping.

The program included free time, a hike over the area field, meet activities and camp fire and church activities.

Both Sedalia units were awarded red ribbons, rating them as standard troops and the four patrols of the two units each received red ribbons designating them as standard patrol.

The Pettis District Camporee will be held in an area near Sedalia yet to be selected on June 2, 3 and 4. All Scout troops representing the district will participate.

Drowns When Boat Capsized

IRONTON, Mo., May 8—(AP)—Jeanie Bock, 16, was drowned in Lake Kilmory, near here, Saturday afternoon when a boat capsized. She was with a group of high school students from Owensville, Mo., on a vacation trip.

RIMOUSKI, Que., May 8—(AP)—Stunned and weary residents of Rimouski poked through blackened ruins today and gloomily predicted it would take 25 years to recover from the economic blow of a 30-hour fire that caused $20,000,000 damage and left 2,500 persons homeless.

By some miracle there were no deaths from the week-end fire in this industrial city of 15,000 on the south shore of the St. Lawrence, 180 miles northeast of Quebec.

But the flames swept through 312 homes and more than a score of buildings and stores, large and small. These included the four-story St. Joseph hospital, the sisters of charity orphanage, the Rimouski seminary, the technical school, Rimouski hospital, two hotels and a motion picture theater.

Wipes Out West Section
It added up to one of the most disastrous fires in Canadian history. The western section of the city was virtually wiped out.

The fire started Saturday night, probably when a power line snapped in a heavy wind and set fire to two Price Brothers big lumber mills. It raced through the mills and spread with almost unbelievable speed, whipped by winds that reached 80 miles an hour.

The flames cut through the western section of the city, destroying one building after another. Throughout Saturday night and all day Sunday firefighters battled the flames. Amidst the smoke and showering cinders thousands of dazed residents loaded belongings on vehicles and fled.

It was not until 20 minutes past Sunday midnight that Maj. Gen. R. O. G. Morton, officer commanding the Quebec command, could announce the fire was under control.

A thin blanket of snow fell on the still smoking ruins this morning.

Red Cross emergency headquarters treated many persons for wounds and minor injuries. During the height of the fire Mrs. Edouard Portugais gave birth to a child. She had to be moved three times as the flames spread into buildings where she was lodged.

Early unofficial reports were that 10 persons had perished in the flames, but army and Red Cross authorities said a checkup disclosed no deaths.

Battle to Save Cathedral
Eight major commercial and educational institutions were also gutted in the nightmarish blaze.

It was believed to have started when a power line snapped during Saturday's heavy wind storm, setting fire to the Price Brothers Lumber company.

Throughout Saturday and all day Sunday volunteer fire fighters and army troops rushed in from surrounding communities and battled the fire desperately.

The biggest battle of the fire took place opposite Rimouski cathedral where hundreds of fire fighters rallied to check the blaze and prevent it from destroying the church. The building twice broke out in flames, but quick action held them under control. Today the church stood alone on a site which once was crowded by wooden homes.

Non-Fiction New Books at Public Library

"Worlds in Collision," by Dr. Immanuel Velikovsky, is ready for circulation at the Sedalia Public Library. Since its preview entitled "The Day the Sun Stood Still," which appeared in the January issue of Harper's Magazine, the book has attracted wide comment and criticism. It contains the thousands of references to folklore and ancient mythology upon which Dr. Velikovsky bases his controversial theory.

Other non-fiction titles added to the library collection in the past week are:

History—"The Grand Alliance," Churchill; "The American Mind," Commager; "The Saskatchewan," Campbell; "Labor in America," Dulles; "Treason," Weyl; "The Negro in the U.S.," Frazier. Instruction—"Culbertson's Hoyle," Ely Culbertson; "Allan Latham's Bee Book," Latham. Science—"The Principles of Human Genetics," Stern; "Cancer," Doherty.

Theater—"Producing the Play," Gassner; "Best Plays of the Modern American Theater," 2nd series, Gassner.

Miscellaneous—"Humanity and Happiness," Brochmann; "Best Sports Stories of 1950," Marsh; "How to Wage Peace," Rosenhaupt; "The Higher Happiness," Sockman; "Jealousy in Children," Ziman.

Meeting Is Postponed

The May meeting of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers club is being postponed to Wednesday, May 17. All members will be notified by phone of the plans for the meeting.

Sedalia Students To Music Camp

Two young students from Sedalia have been accepted for enrollment at the world famed National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan, according to an announcement received today from Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, director of the camp.

Charles F. Walch, 711 West Broadway (high school division). He is the son of Harry W. Walch.

Ruth Ann Yunker, 1214 South Carr (university division). She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yunker.

The camp will open its 23rd season on June 25 and will continue through eight weeks of concentrated study in the arts, closing on August 21. A capacity enrollment of 1,000 young students from all over America and several foreign countries will be on hand for the opening concert in the famous outdoor Interlochen Bowl under the baton of Dr. Maddy, one of America's foremost music educators. Students for the northwoods music camp, known as the "greatest single center of youth culture in the United States," are selected on the basis of character, scholarship and outstanding artistic ability. With a faculty of 90 teachers, chosen from universities and colleges throughout the nation, the music camp also offers courses in the drama, dance, opera, radio, art and recreation on four educational levels, junior, intermediate, high school and college.

Pettis County Farm and Home News

New Egg Law In State Soon Be Effective

Expected To Give Consumer Higher Quality Of Eggs

The new Missouri Egg Law which becomes effective soon will affect the majority of farmers in Pettis county. All who produce eggs to be sold for food will feel the effects of this program. Consumers of eggs will be more certain to get the quality of eggs they pay for. The quality of eggs going to market should be greatly improved under this program.

Section 9906 says "Those engaged in buying and selling eggs for food in Missouri shall candle all eggs bought from producers during the period of June 1 to December 31 inclusive. Inedible eggs shall be candled out, rejected and returned or charged back to the seller. Such dealers are required to have a license."

Section 9907 in part says all candled eggs shall be identified by a candling certificate placed on the top layer of the eggs in each case. This certificate shall remain in each case until the eggs are sold.

In accordance with Section 9908 the following grades have been set up: "Missouri AA", "Missouri A", "Missouri B", "Missouri C". While grading is not required by law, eggs not graded will be labeled "unclassified" eggs or "no grade". Producers, of course, selling eggs that will grade "C" or better will insist on grading as "unclassified" will sell at a lower price than the graded eggs. This will certainly occur when the consuming public learns the difference.

Must Label Size

All eggs must be labeled as to size: Jumbo, Extra Large, Medium, Small or Pewee.

To qualify for "AA" the eggs must be clean, unbroken with air cells 1/4 inch or less in depth, with clear firm white and a well centered yolk. Eggs falling in "A" grade must be clean and unbroken, with an air cell of 1/2 inch or less in depth and the white clear and reasonably firm and the yolk fairly well centered. The lower grades will consist of clean eggs, air cells of 3/8 inch or more and yolks off center. Some other factors are included in grading.

As the consuming public becomes familiar with this program the higher the grade the better the public will like them. They will get what they pay for. This will be an inducement for producers to market higher quality eggs as the net returns will increase with higher grades.

Some suggestions are offered by the County Extension office on production of eggs and on marketing to get this higher price.

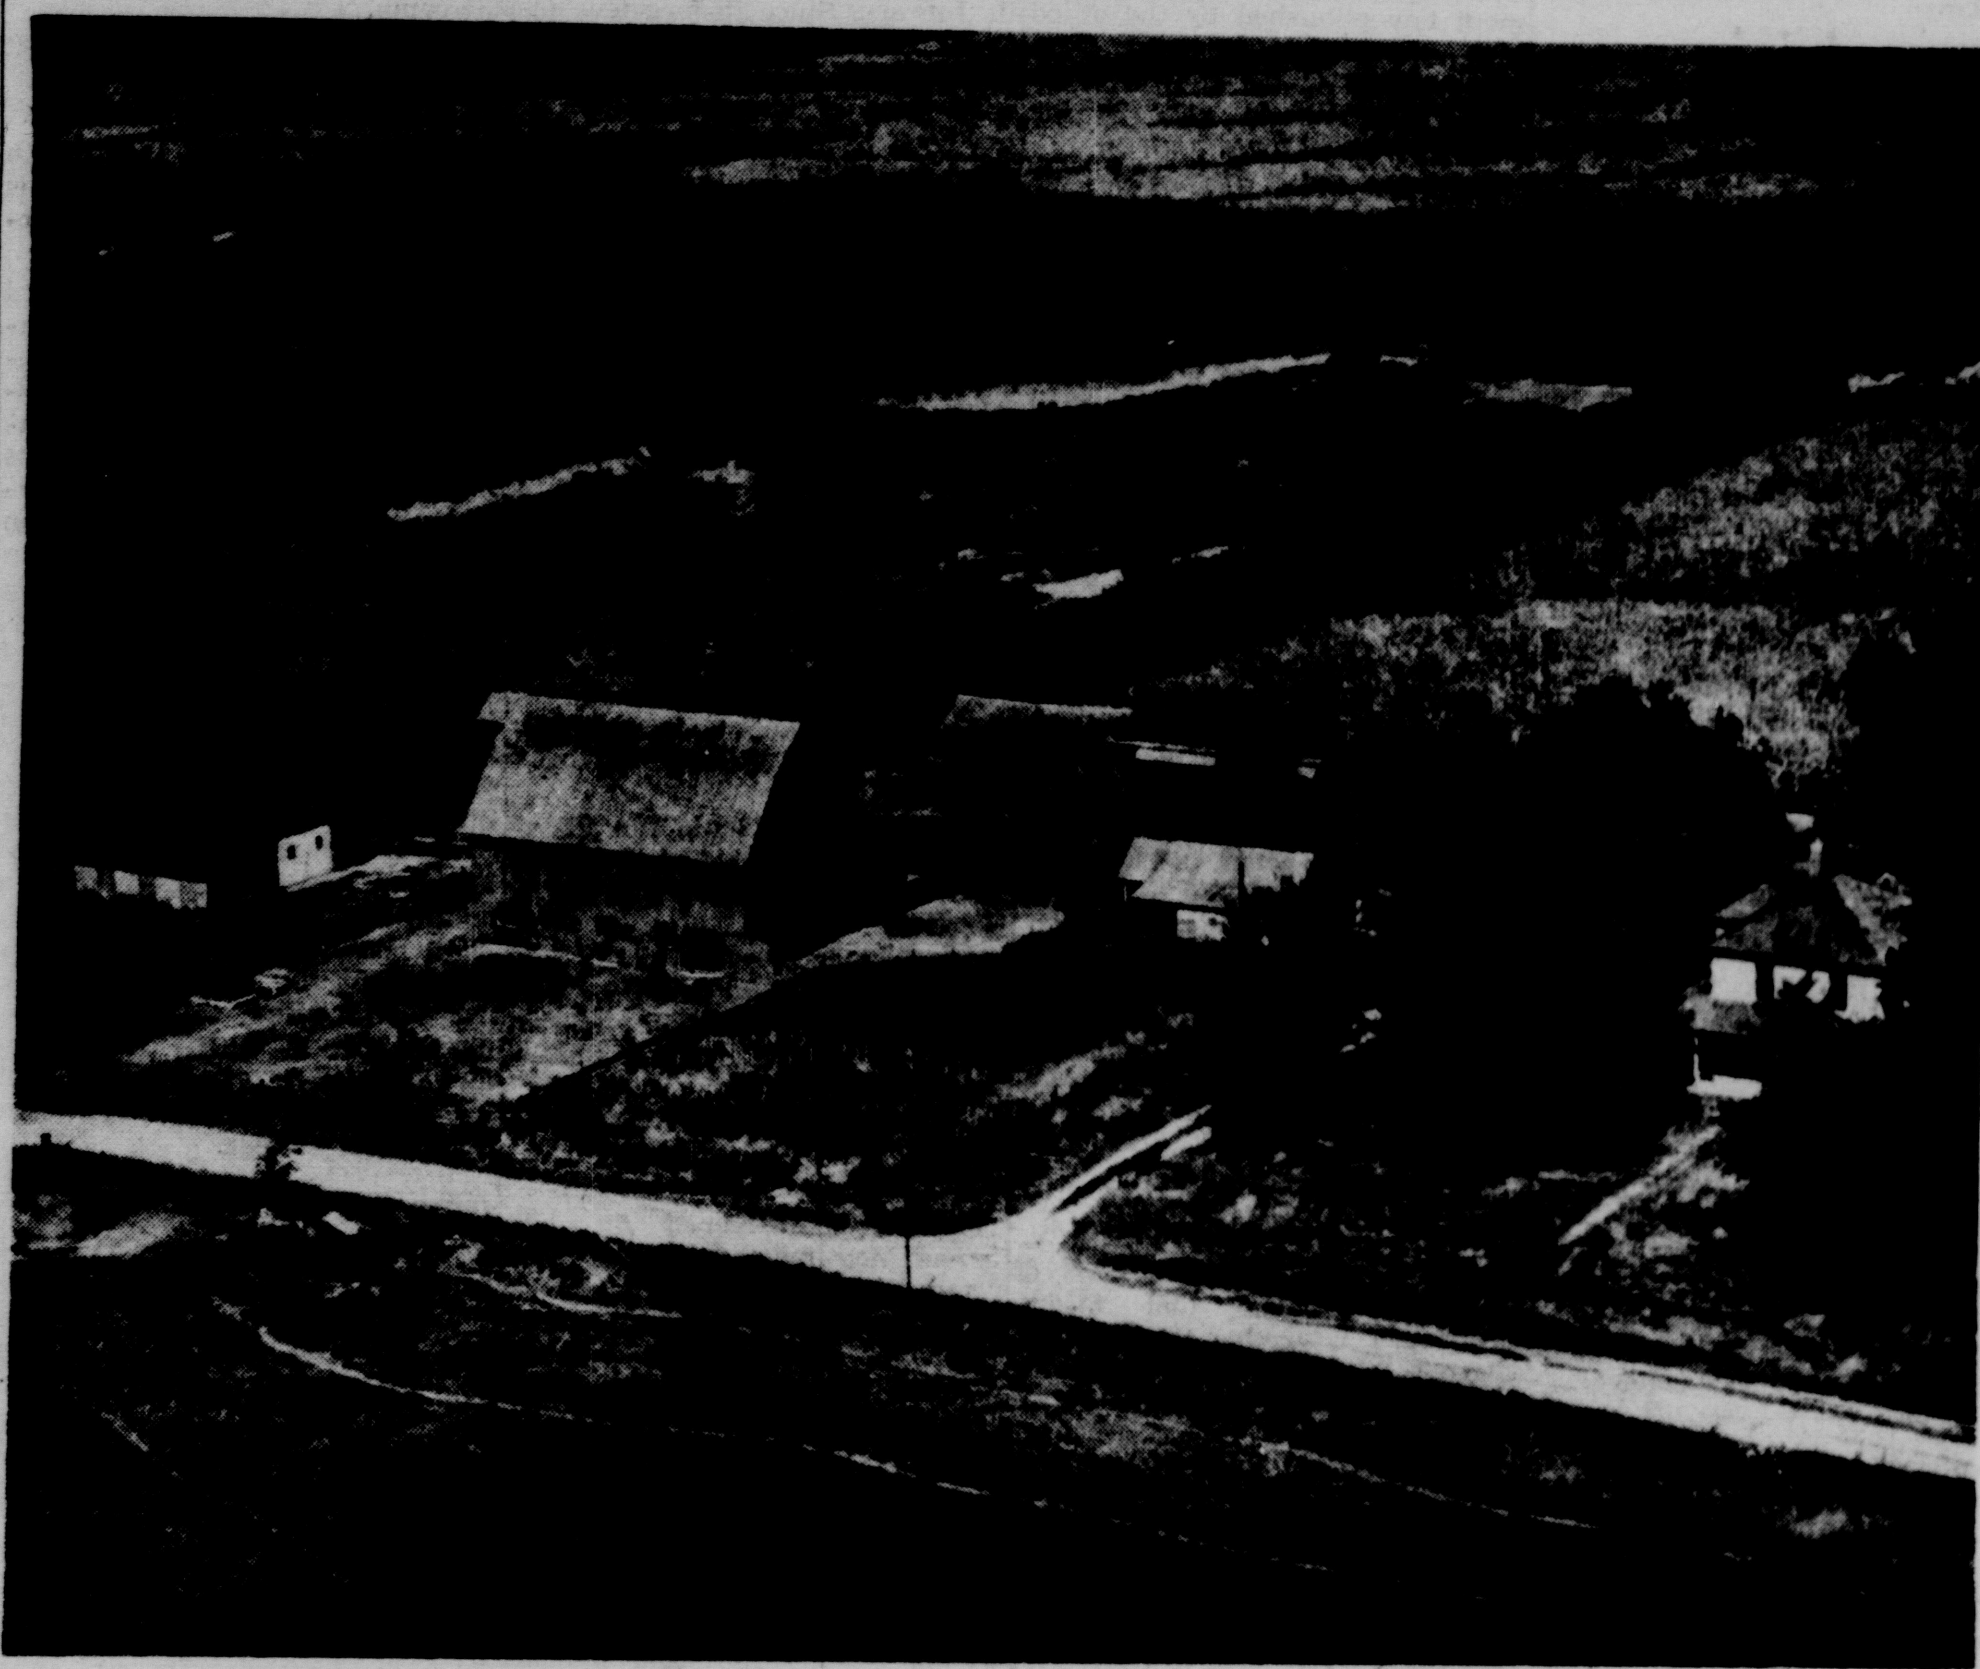

It will be noted that all eggs in "AA", "A", "B", and "C" must be clean. This means dirty eggs will fall into an "unclassified" grade. Hence it will be worth while to keep eggs clean. Proper nests and equipment will aid in this as will more frequent gathering. Those eggs with a small amount of dirt can best be cleaned with steel wool or sandpaper. Use of water will cause interior deterioration and may cause the egg to go in a lower grade.

The size of the air cell is used as an index in determining the age of eggs. Loss of moisture and high temperature increase the rate of evaporation thus enlarging the air cell. Frequent gathering of the eggs, gathering the eggs in a wire basket, covering them out in this wire basket in a cool moist place and have the cases, fillers and flats cool when the eggs are cased will aid greatly. Marketing should be done twice a week if possible.

This program likely will discourage the keeping of small sized flocks and encourage the keeping of larger units as is recommended in a good balanced farming program. Previously there has not been enough spread between "good", "medium" or "bad" eggs for the producer to encourage him to do a good job, except where he has been taking advantage of the opportunity offered on selling on the quality basis.

Producers likely gradually will

Mystery Farm Pictures in Central Missouri---

Whose farm is it?

Occupants of the above farm home may have wondered this spring about a plane buzzing low over their buildings. The picture explains it. The airplane pilot didn't know whose farm it was. The photographer didn't either. The two of them just flew around the Central Missouri area served by the Sedalia Democrat-Capital newspapers and took pictures. They couldn't take pictures of all the farms but they got as many good shots as possible during the light time.

strive toward a flock of sufficient size to make it worth while to put the industry on a more business basis, thus using labor saving equipment. Those not interested in this may reduce their flock size down to a point that will result in production of just enough birds to provide eggs and chickens for home consumption. The Extension office will be glad to furnish additional information on the production of quality eggs and the marketing of these eggs.

High Herd Honor To E. C. Stevens

E. C. Stevens gets the honor for high herd and high individual cow in the April report of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association, reports Eugene Dowdy supervisor in his report to the Extension office.

Mr. Stevens' 29 Jerseys average production was 711 pounds of milk containing 34.3 pounds butterfat. This includes as do the other herds the dry cows in his herd. He had 6.8 dry cows.

Lee Yeater & Son had the second high herd with 41.5 Holsteins (3.7 dry cows). His production per cow was 974 pounds milk and 34.2 pounds fat.

Gene Helman's 26 Holsteins (6 dry cows) averaged 880 pounds milk and 30. pounds fat.

Harold Alcorn's 12 Guernseys (3 dry cows) averaged 448 pounds milk and 22.1 pounds fat.

Peters and Van Dyne herd of 28 cows (8 dry) produced an average of 507 pounds milk and 21.7 pounds fat.

One noticeable thing about the report is the difference in feed cost per cow where plenty of pasture to little or no pasture. The low feed cost on the five high herds was $6.50 per cow while the high cost was $17.45 per cow. Again this emphasizes the importance of dairymen having rye or sweet

So about once a week hereafter, until the pictures run out,

The mystery farm picture which appeared in the Democrat-Capital last Monday was identified by P. M. Licklider, route 4, as his farm home. The farm is located four miles southwest of Sedalia on the old Highway 65-Green Ridge road and contains 308 acres of land.

Mr. Licklider does more or less general farming, raises cattle and some chickens. He purchased the farm seven years ago after disposing of his farm near Ottaville, and has since resided there.

He has remodeled the farm home and it is now modern in every respect. The home and buildings near the residence have electricity. There are three large barns, one barn used for his milking barn, has concrete flooring, a loft with a capacity of 50-tons of hay; another is his granary and cattle barn, the third is a large barn which stores 100-tons of hay. A small machinery barn is nearby, as is a chicken house which accommodates 300 laying hens.

Mr. Licklider is a builder and cabinet maker by trade and worked in Kansas City many years. He says he has had farms for nearly thirty ears.

At present he has about 100 head of cattle. He raises mostly oats, wheat, corn and hay, and has about 200 acres of land in blue grass.

The entire farm is well fenced and he used hedge posts.

exhibits and a yearling ewe class added to the previous classes. In addition there will be an increase in the premium money offered. The Danish system of judging will be used with awards made on a blue ribbon, red ribbon, and white ribbon basis.

Tentative plans call for again holding the show at the Missouri Pacific Stockyards if possible. It is hoped that the 1950 show will be much bigger and better than the 1949 show which was considered very successful for a new undertaking. Every 4-H club member enrolled in 4-H livestock, dairy, or poultry projects should begin now to make preparation for

Notices Sent On Approved Farm Practices

Chairman Of PMA Committee Says They Mailed Out

Notices of 1950 approved practices have now been mailed to all farmers participating in the Agricultural Conservation Program, stated Jas. A. Harvey, chairman of the Pettis county PMA committee. With these notices was enclosed a letter explaining the availability of additional assistance on five soil conservation practices to those farmers who would carry out such practices on their farms this year.

A total of $39,409 has been designated to be used for this special assistance and thus far requests for nearly one-third of this amount has been received but no definite allocations have been made for any farm by the county committee. Farmers who plan to perform one or more of these five special practices which include the construction of sod waterways, standard terraces, diversion terraces, farm ponds, and the establishing of permanent pasture are urged to contact the county PMA office and file their request even though the practice may not be performed until later this fall.

Specific Requirements

"Specific requirements have been set up according to the recommendations of the Missouri College of Agriculture for the performance of all practices approved by the ACP committeemen to meet specifications for payment. It is necessary that at least the minimum requirements on all practices be met before assistance will be finally approved on any 1950 practices", states Harvey, "and this is especially true of the requirements on the five 'special' practices. These will be given strict supervision by the members of the county PMA committee and program."

Specifications for practice No. 1—Establishing Terrace Outlets and Sod Waterways are: Permanent grassed outlets for terraces are to be constructed by transversely leveling an area adjacent to the lower ends of the proposed terraces to carry the expected run-off. The outlets shall have a minimum width of 16 feet and adequate earthen berms shall be provided on each side of the outlet to confine the water. Perennial grasses must be heavily seeded on the outlets and berms.

In construction of a sod waterway, the channel of the waterway must have a minimum width of 16 feet at the narrowest point and be side enough to carry the run-off from the drainage area. The sod waterway may be established by plowing or disking, leveling, and erning players and softball games will also be worked out at this time.

Plan for 4-H Sunday May 21

Pettis County 4-H club members are making plans for the observance of 4-H Sunday by their local clubs on May 21. In the past, 4-H Sunday has been held in conjunction with Rural Life Sunday but this year Rural Life Sunday is to be observed on May 14 which is also Mother's day, thus the change in date was made.

Last year 20 Pettis county clubs observed 4-H Sunday by conducting their own services, assisting in the regular church service of the local church or by attending church as a group. Over the state 1,245 clubs in 108 counties participated in the 4-H Sunday services. The total attendance at these services was over 40,000 persons with approximately one-half the whole state 4-H membership taking part. Efforts are being made to get every club in Pettis county to observe Club Sunday this year.

4-H Sunday is closely connected with Rogation days, celebrated for centuries in the Christian church during the three days preceding Ascension day, and is usually held on the fifth Sunday after Easter.

otherwise preparing a good seed-bed, fertilizing and liming, if necessary, and seeding a sufficient amount of perennial grasses to establish a heavy sod.

Adequate cross berms for controlling erosion in the terrace outlet or sod waterway until the sod is well established must be provided.

No payment will be made on a terrace outlet or sod waterway established prior to 1950, unless the county committee determines by inspection and prior approval that it is necessary to tear up the old sod, cultivate, relevel, and establish a new sod cover.

(Applicable only where the seed- a terrace outlet or sod waterway only when a member or representative of the county committee inspects the site and gives prior approval for the construction.

Assistance rates: (a) for cultivation and establishing the sod—75c per 1,000 square feet, and (b) for moving earth with dirt-moving equipment—12c per cubic yard ((applicable only where the seed- ing has been completed).

The observance of Rogation days is a carry over from the ancient Egyptian ceremony of blessing the land and seed at the time of planting.

4-H club members assembling together to worship on 4-H Sunday will join a long succession of past generations in seeking the blessings of God upon their land, the seed, the cultivation of the soil, and the enrichment of home and community life.

Time Now To Put In Warm Season Crops

The following is taken from "Next Week in the Garden" prepared by Clyde Cunningham, Extension Horticulturist of the Missouri College of Agriculture, University of Missouri. More details on this are available at the County Extension office.

The seed bed should be fine and mellow on top and firm underneath. Don't work the ground when the soil is sticky.

It's time to plant warm season crops such as tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, sweet potatoes, beans, sweet corn, peanuts, okra and vine crops as cucumbers, watermelon, cantaloupe, pumpkin and squash.

Some of these are quite important. We need the tomatoes and yellow vegetables. For variety in yellow vegetables, plant sweet potatoes, pumpkin and squash, as well as carrots.

Get good plants. Make certain they are the variety you want and free from disease.

Beans and sweet corn can be used in successive plantings. Try quick freezing some of these. This saves work and frozen vegetables retain most of their natural flavor, color and texture of fresh foods.

Good Food Producer

Sweet potatoes will produce more pounds of food for the area than most crops. Classified as a yellow vegetable, sweet potatoes are higher in total food value than Irish potatoes. Plant healthy plants in soil that is not infested.

Many farms have a better place to store and keep sweet potatoes than Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes keep best at a temperature not lower than 55 degrees Fahrenheit and relatively dry.

Why not try a few peanuts. They are a high quality food and are not difficult to grow.

If you have never had okra in your garden, you might like to try it. Learn how to grow it, how to cook it and then learn to like it. It can be sliced and fried, stemmed and in soups. Harvest the pods before the tough stringy fiber begins to develop if you want it before it gets slick.

Of course you will want sweet corn. Three good varieties are: Gold Rush, Golden Cross Bantam and Joana.

Several new bean varieties are on the market this year. One that should be tried is Top-Crop. Until better ones have proved themselves the Tender Pod is still recommended. It's a bush bean. The pods are full, almost round, green in color, slightly curved and with a distinctive longer tail than most varieties. It is a good yielder and generally produces longer than Tendergreen or Improved Green Pod.

Butter Nut Squash may have three advantages as compared to other varieties. It can be used as either summer squash or stored for fall and winter use. It is relatively small and one or two at a time will be used by a family without a large amount of leftovers which often happen with larger types. The flesh is even-textured and of a light yellow color. The skin is light yellow and smooth when it reaches maturity. One planting should produce squash early for fresh use and then on until frost.

Fertilizer Pays High

Fertilizer pays well on vegetables. If you did not use fertilizer on the early vegetable it isn't too late to add some now. Peas, cabbage, broccoli and cauliflower will especially benefit by fertilizing applications. When the plants are well established, after transplanting, add fertilizer along the side of the row and work it into the soil with cultivation. Other early vegetables will also show a favorable response to fertilizer at this time of year.

This fertilizer should be applied at a rate of one pound (about two teacups) of a complete fertilizer such as 4-12-4 or 8-8-8 to 100 feet of row.

The nitrogen in commercial fertilizer is soluble and the spring rains will carry it even deeper into the soil than where you place it. This makes it readily available to the roots of the garden vegetables. The nitrogen in organic matter and manures is rather slowly available during cooler weather and becomes more rapidly available as the soil warms up in the spring. It is during this

Recreation Night by 4-H

Approximately 350 Pettis County 4-H'ers, parents, and leaders attended the annual 4-H Recreation night program held at Convention hall on Saturday night, April 29.

The program, conducted entirely by club members, got under way with a get acquainted game where by each participant was required to get the signatures of various other individuals whose name corresponded to a letter in the participants name. This game provided a means for everybody to become better acquainted with one another.

Many games, including folk games, action games and mixer games were played during the evening under the direction of Miss Anna Lee Harvey, game leader of the 4-H council and a committee working under her direction.

After the serving of refreshments consisting of cola and cookies the remainder of the evening was spent in square dancing which was enjoyed by the adults as well as the 4-H'ers.

In Charge of Program

The committee in charge of the recreation did a splendid job of planning and carrying out the evening's program. Members of this committee, were, in addition to Miss Harvey, Alberta Runge and Elva Huddleston of the Georgetown 4-H club, Lillian Bahner of the Striped College Club, Ed Hoehns of the Ringen-Brushy club, J. D. Schlobohm from the Oak Grove club, and Emmett Fairfax of the South Abell club.

The refreshment committee which was in charge of serving consisted of Charles Long from the Van Natta club, Forrest Eugene Reid of the Prairie Ridge club, time before the soil warms up that early vegetables especially need nitrogen supplied by commercial fertilizer.

Joyce Walk from the Brown club and Mary Jo Welliver of the Flat Creek 4-H club.

Robert Charles from the Elder Ridge-Oak Grove club and Forrest Eugene Reid of the Prairie Ridge club provided the music for square dancing with their lively numbers played on the violin and guitar.

Promotion Of Good Terracing

To promote good terracing work in Missouri an association of contractors was organized in Missouri a number of years ago. The following contractors who operate in Pettis county are now members of this association—Arnold Fischer, Jack Fischer, James Bahner, Marvin Howard, all of Sedalia and Ed Vaughan of Knob Noster.

These members pledge themselves to follow the recommendations of the Agricultural Engineering Department of the Missouri College of Agriculture, University of Missouri through the Extension Agricultural Engineers and the local County Extension Agent.

One of the main objectives is to sponsor nothing but high quality work and workmanship by the individuals comprising the association. The association sets as its standard quality work governed by specifications set forth by the Agricultural Engineering Department of the College of Agriculture, University of Missouri. The members of the Association guarantee each other and the public that only work of recognized good standards will be undertaken.

Members of the association stand back of their work. If perchance the work done does not come up to standard, members are obligated to make the work good.

Demonstrate Constructing Of Spillway

A demonstration on the construction of a concrete soil saving dam has been announced by Associate County Agent Merle Vaughan. It will be held on the John Ryan farm 5 miles northeast of Sedalia on Friday afternoon May 19th.

These dams are actually concrete spillways designed to let water down from a terrace outlet into a natural water course. Such a structure prevents the water from cutting a ditch back up the outlet.

These structures are made by plastering 4 inches of concrete on shaped earth forms. No regular form material is needed. It is reinforced with hog wire. This dam was designed by Agricultural Engineers at the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station and because it does not need form material, it is popular for its low cost.

The one to be built at Mr. Ryan's will drop the water in the terrace outlet down about 4 feet into the field ditch and will take about 4-5 yards of concrete.

At least 500 terrace outlets have been built in Pettis County since 1946. Probably over half or at least 250 of them need structures

4-H campers for the 4-H camp to be held at Knob Noster State park from July 21-24 has not yet been fully reached. Any 4-H club member who wishes to go to camp is requested to make application soon. A deposit of $1.50 is required from each 4-H'er who plans to attend camp.

similar to the one that will be built May 19th. Folks who need such structures should make it a point to attend the meeting and learn how they are designed and built.

The demonstration will actually be held on the north side of Mr. Ryan's farm which is on the "Beaman blacktop" and about 2½ miles west of Beaman. It will start at 1 o'clock sharp so that the pouring of the concrete can be completed as early as possible. Remember it is Friday afternoon May 19th.

Further information regarding the meeting may be obtained at the County Extension office.

The south it continued warm. Muddy Waters at Winnipeg. WINNIPEG, Manitoba, May 8.—(AP)—Hundreds of blocks of this great prairie city lay beneath a sea of muddy water today as troops and civilian volunteers worked wearily to bolster sagging levees against a new flood threat from North Dakota and Minnesota.

Silt-laden water swirled through many Winnipeg streets, paralyzing communications and transport on the outskirts, and authorities warned that the worst is yet to come.

The city may face two flood crests as spring torrents pour down the Red river from the rain-soaked northern United States. The first crest is expected within the next few days.

Meanwhile, the Canadian army warned some 1,500 residents in low lying areas to flee at once because the dikes might break at any time. More than 4,000 persons already have been evacuated from their homes, from hospitals and from the city jail.

An estimated 4,000 other persons have fled from a dozen small Canadian towns engulfed by the flood waters in the 60-mile stretch from the U. S. border to Winnipeg.

Brig. R. E. A. Morton, flood relief director, said water 23 feet deep might soon pour over damaged sections of the dike protecting low lying residential districts of suburban Norwood and East Kildonan.

"The danger is real," he said. "Everything is continuing to be done to prevent a calamity."

More than 2,000 Winnipeg homes have been abandoned to the flood and damage estimates range into millions of dollars.

The river rose two inches yesterday to a level of 27.3 feet—more than nine feet above flood stage. Authorities said they expected the first crest might add four more feet.

Warning Sounded By Truman

train reached the Rockwell yards where it switched from the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to Burlington tracks.

Ed McKim, Omaha insurance man, met the train, and Mr. Truman took a walk with him and Bill Mox, a circulation official of the Chicago Sun-Times, during the hour and 10 minute Chicago stop-over.

The president walked fully a mile along the tracks, picking his way along the ties like an old hand.

Hungry newspapermen tagged along. No politicians showed up at the yards and the president said he hadn't expected any in view of his plans to speak in Chicago a week from tonight.

"Advocate Ways of Spending"

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(AP)—Rep. Arends (R-Ill.) said today that the purpose of President Truman's cross-country trip is "to advocate new ways of spending money."

Arends, assistant GOP House leader, said in a statement:

"If he were making this tour into 16 states to explain to the American people the absolute necessity of saving every dollar possible the taxpayers would probably consider this extraordinary expense estimate at $250,000 to pay for this trip to be a good investment."

"Unfortunately, that is not the purpose of the trip. He is making this trip to repeat his promises of something for everybody which in the end means nothing for any one."

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN, May 8.—(AP)—Republicans began shadowing President Truman today on his western tour.

Johnston told reporters that he is flying in a chartered plane to check up on the president and to issue statements by prominent Republicans in answer to the president.

Knocked Back By a Prowler

Police received a telephone call from a woman late Saturday night regarding a prowler, who stepped out of the front door and knocked her over backwards, just as she was entering her home, after returning from a late movie.

The woman who reported the prowler was Mrs. Delphia Fry, 703 East Seventeenth street. She said she came to a movie, and when she came home about 11:30 o'clock that night, a tall man, wearing dark clothes rushed out of the front door, and in doing so, knocked her over backwards.

She said her 18-year old son came home later, and got a gun. They thought the prowler went to the barn, but upon entering it, did not find him.

The police made an investigation, but did not apprehend the prowler.

Miss Monroe is Club Speaker

The Flat Creek Extension club held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. Ralph Milburn. Eighteen members and two visitors were present. The visitors were: Mrs. Henry Mahnen and Mrs. Chmelir. A contributive covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at noon. Mrs. I. J. Edmundson, president conducted the afternoon business meeting. The song leader led the club song. Miss Lulu Monroe gave an interesting devotional on "Our World." Roll call was answered with "Some Faults of Dresses I Dislike."

Committee reports were given and several announcements were made. The club voted to donate $5 to the cancer fund and Mrs. Paul Mowry gave an interesting talk on "Styles That Fit the Individual." She used Mrs. Edmundson as her model and demonstrated style trends.

The May meeting place was not decided upon. Notification will be made through the calling committee.

Chiefs Scored 13-0 Shutout Over Lions

Joe Imhauser Limited Lions To Three Hits

The Sedalia Ban Johnson Chiefs won their league opener by shutting out the Booneville Lions 13 to 0 under the lights of Liberty Park, Sunday night.

Joe Imhauser, ace right hander for the Chiefs went the route for the Sedalia club and allowed only three hits. The Chiefs tallied their runs in the first, second, fourth and sixth innings.

In the first inning, Ruffin walked and stole second; Walker walked, then Waters singled in both runs.

In the second inning, Whitworth walked, stole second, and scored on Imhauser's single.

Big Innings

The fourth and fifth innings each brought in five runs. In the fourth, Vilmer walked; Whitworth struck out; infield hit for Brown and Imhauser struck out. The bases were then filled when Ruffin walked. Walker smashed a grounder between first and second base, and Walker advanced to second when Kaufman over threw third. Dillard singled in Walker. Then Waters, Holst and Vilmer walked. Dillard scored on a passed ball. Asteere replaced Jewett on the mound for Booneville in this frame.

With one out in the sixth inning, Dillard, Holst, Brown, Imhauser and Ruffin singled. The inning ended with a double play. Steere to Webb to Jewett.

Bucky Harris Plots New Play

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—Bucky Harris, whose baseball savvy is making Washington look like a respectable member of the American League, plans to reunite a double-play combination that hasn't worked together since 1946.

The gray-haired pilot said today he would move Sam Dente, the Nat's regular shortstop, to second base and install newly acquired Merrill Combs in Sam's old position.

"I'm sure their infield play will benefit us," Harris said. "They should be a great combination as soon as Dente gets adjusted to second."

Buckley has the Nats in fourth place, only three and one-half games behind the league-leading Detroit Tigers.

Dente and Combs once played together but that was at Scranton in the Eastern League in 1946. When Al Kozar, who's being benched in the shakedown, hurt his back that season, Dente was moved from third to second. The two-man team turned in an impressive performance in 40 games but they haven't worked together since.

Combs came to Washington last night in a straight player swap with utility outfielder Tom O'Brien. Outfielder Clyde Vollmer was sent to the Red Sox.

500-Mile Indianapolis Speedway Race May 30

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8—(AP)—Mauri Rose, South Bend, Ind., engineer, and Bill Holland of Reading, Pa., fulltime auto racer, will be the only former winners in the 500-mile race May 30 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

And, likely as not, they'll be co-favorites after qualification runs next Saturday.

Rose demonstrated over the week-end that he has hooked up with another fast and well-serviced car. He took the Howard Keck special of Los Angeles for a ride at 131.9 miles an hour, best speed over the two-and-one-half mile track this season.

Holland's record breaking average for the 500 miles last year was 121.327 miles an hour. Rose's car looked capable of beating that.

Charlie Coe Won Amateur Western Title

He Will be the Only Amateur to Play in Colonial

By Harold V. Ratliff

DALLAS, May 8—(AP)—Amateur golfer's triple crown—the National, Trans-Mississippi and Western—in the bag, silent Charlie Coe, Oklahoma's thin man, set his sights today on the Colonial National Invitation at Fort Worth where he will match strokes with crack professionals.

The Oklahoma City string bean licked Bob Goldwater, 39-year-old Phoenix, Ariz., business man, 7 and 6 yesterday to bag the forty-eighth Western Amateur title. The poker-faced young man with the million dollar swing put on a show for the gallery of 5,000 in the final 18 holes, finishing with two birdies and an eagle to leave the wise-cracking Goldwater somewhat agast.

"We old folks have had everything," quipped Goldwater. "I like to see young fellows like Charlie get ahead."

Will Go Against Hogan

Coe is the only amateur who will play in the $15,000 Colonial Invitation May 25-28 where he will go against Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and other greats of pro golf. Nelson, an observer at the Western Amateur where he did a column for a Dallas newspaper, said Charlie might give them a lot of trouble.

Coe was a trifle put out over his play in the first 18 holes of yesterday's finals when he shot seven-over-par 77 on the 6,470-yard Dallas country club course. "I was mighty spotty," he declared, although he held a two-up lead over Goldwater as they went to lunch.

But there certainly was nothing wrong with his afternoon 18. He was put over par on only one hole when he missed the green and also his putt. He had eight pars, two birdies and an eagle for the 12 holes it took him to win over the scrambling Goldwater.

Never Lets Up

Coe is 26 years old, weighs 135 pounds and is 6 feet 2 inches tall. He looks quite frail but certainly isn't. His pal, Jim Vickers of Wichita, Kas., who played in the tournament here, says Charlie is a killer. "If he has you eight down he says, 'Well, I gotta win the next one to make it nine,'" declares Vickers. "The guy just never lets up."

The tournament drew good galleries and this together with contributions will hand between $12,000 and $15,000 to the Evans scholars fund. This fund, founded by Chick Evans, the famed golfer, is to send caddies to college.

Roundup of Big Leagues On Sunday

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ted Williams' blazing bat and the friendly confines of Fenway park have boosted the Boston Red Sox to within a hair's breadth of first place.

Joe McCarthy's men today were 42 percentage points behind the American League leading Detroit club. In games won and lost, however, they topped the Tigers by half a length.

The Red Sox' double triumph over the St. Louis Browns yesterday, 8-6 and 6-2, gave them a 13-7 record as compared with Detroit's 9-4 mark. The Tigers bowed to the Yankees in New York, 6-3.

Coan's Homer

Gil Coan's bases-loaded homer, his second grand slam in five days, enabled the Washington Senators to come from behind and defeat the Cleveland Indians, 10-5. Mickey Harris, who allowed one hit in the last five innings after replacing starter Conrado Marrero, was the winner.

Chicago and Philadelphia divided a doubleheader. The White Sox pounded Lou Brissie for 10 hits, half for extra bases, to win the first game 7-3. Carmen Guerra's three-run homer and Bob Hopper's seven-hit pitching won the second game for Philadelphia 4-2.

Dodgers Still on Top

Every club but Brooklyn and Boston switched positions in the National League following yesterday's results. The Dodgers retained their hold on first place, edging out the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 3-2. Jackie Robinson drove in all Brooklyn's runs with a single, double and home run off Murry

Armstrong Edged The Cubs 6 to 5

Sedalia Team Will Play J. C. Dodgers This Friday Night

The Sedalia Cubs were defeated by the strong Armstrong club at Armstrong Sunday afternoon by the score of 6 to 5.

Flashel, a righthander, started on the mound for Armstrong and pitched a fine game until the fifth inning. Waters was the first player up and he grounded out; Barnes singled, Weller walked and Rapp doubled. C. Thompson singled. Flashel was replaced by Graham, former Missouri University pitcher for Holden. Livenwood singled, Slocum sacrificed. Barr singled, G. Thompson flied out to right field. The Sedalia club scored five runs in the fifth inning off five hits and a walk.

Bob Rapp on Mound

Rapp was on the mound for the Cubs, allowing six hits and struck out nine men at the plate. Chas. Thompson led the hitting for the Cubs with two singles and a double in five trips to the plate. Tucker of Armstrong got two hits out of five trips.

Armstrong has a paid ball club, and according to the manager, it costs $150 every time the team enters the field. The team is composed of several Fayette college star ball players. Many fans here know Prevort, first baseman; Winn, catcher and Tucker, centerfield. The Sedalia Cubs will play a return game later with Armstrong.

Meeting For Officials

A meeting for the Sedalia Club officers will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the office of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce.

The Cubs will open their night season at the Liberty park, Friday night with the strong Negro Jefferson City Dodgers.

Ten Games on Week's Card For Big Seven

Bufs Host to Tigers Today in Baseball Game

KANSAS CITY, May 8—(AP)—The Big Seven conference baseball race makes the turn homeward in its schedule this week with four teams figuring prominently in the championship.

They are the Colorado Buffaloes, who have won their only start permitted by the weather, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Missouri. Ten games, two of them today, are on the week's card.

Today, Colorado was to play host to the Missouri Tigers. Kansas had Iowa State at home in Lawrence, Kas. The same teams are scheduled for the same sites tomorrow.

Schedule

Friday and Saturday, the schedule lines up this way: Colorado at Oklahoma. Kansas at Kansas State. Nebraska at Iowa State.

Nebraska, in second place with 6 victories and 2 losses, and Missouri, fourth at 6-4, moved into contending positions by sweeping doubleheaders last Saturday. Both had had their scheduled Friday games postponed because of wind and dust.

The Cornhuskers beat Kansas 7 to 2 and 4 to 3. Missouri defeated Kansas State 6 to 2 and 3 to 1.

Blues Dropped Doubleheader

By The Associated Press

Fast-starting Indianapolis holds a 2 1/2 game lead atop the American Association standings today after sweeping its third successive Sunday doubleheader for 13 wins in 16 starts.

Minneapolis, ertwhile leaders, skidded to second with 7-2 after splitting with Columbus.

The Tribe dropped Kansas City 11-2 and 6-2. The Indians bagged 11 hits good for 22 bases in taking the first game behind veteran Elmer Riddle's five hit batter.

While Riddle bagged his third win against one defeat, Royce Lint picked up his first victory in the nightcap by allowing only eight hits.

Dickson. The defeat dropped the Pirates into a fourth place tie with St. Louis.

The Cardinals jumped two notches by humiliating the Boston Braves, 15-0. The Braves were held to four singles by Howie Pollet. Enos Slaughter led a 21-hit attack against Johnny Sain and three relievers with four hits in five times at bat.

The Philadelphia Phillies moved into second place by dumping the Reds twice in Cincinnati, 6-0 and 6-4.

The New York Giants moved out of last place as Cincinnati moved in by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the Cubs in Chicago, 4-3 and 5-2.

Leap Frog At Home

Johnny Pesky of the Red Sox leaps over Chicago White Sox catcher Phil Masi but was tagged out at home in the first inning of a game at Boston, May 5. 'Old Hoss' Pitched 72 Games In National League in 1884

By Joe Reichler

NEW YORK, May 8—(AP)—Ever hear of Charlie (Old Hoss) Radbourne? Or Fred (Sure Shot) Dunlap?

Both prospered in the eighties. Radbourne was the king of National league pitchers. Dunlap was the one and only among the infielders.

Radbourne, handle-bar mustache and all, won 60 games for the Providence Grays (sometimes called the Yankees) in 1884. He pitched 72 games that year.

Other Pitcher Jumped League

In those days a club carried only two pitchers. Radbourne's pitching partner, Jim Sweeney, decided to jump the club in July to play with the outlaw Union Association. That left it up to Radbourne.

All Old Hoss did was pitch the last 37 games for Providence, winning 32 of them. There were days when he couldn't lift his right arm for his morning shave. He not only won the pennant for the Grays, but pitched and won all three games against the New York Metropolitans in the world series that fall. It was the best three out of five then. It also was the first world series in history. He wound up with 308 victories in 12 seasons.

Dunlap broke in with the old Cleveland Spiders in 1880 and starred in the National league for 11 years. Until Nap Lajoie came along he was regarded as the greatest second basemen who ever lived.

His Greatest Year

His greatest year was in 1884 when he swatted .420. That was the year he jumped Cleveland for the Union Association and was paid a salary of $6,000, four times the salaries paid in those days. Although Dunlap could not read nor write, he quit the game in 1891 with $100,000. He died a few years later, a pauper.

Dunlap was an outstanding hitter but he was more famous for his fielding. He had a powerful arm and was tremendously fast.

Radbourne and Dunlap are two "musts" on the ancient National league all-star team. Only those who spent most of their playing days between the years 1876 and 1900 were considered. Another consideration was that the players must have spent a majority of their big league career in the National league.

All-Star Team

The following is the writer's all-star team according to their positions, the teams with whom they starred longest and their years of activity:

- 1B—Adrian (Cap) Anson, Chicago (1876-1897).
- 2B—Fred Dunlap, Cleveland, Pittsburgh (1880-91).
- 3B—John McGraw, Baltimore, St. Louis (1891-1906).
- SS—Ed Williamson, Chicago (1878-90).
- LF—Willie Keeler, Baltimore, Brooklyn (1892-1910).
- RF—Ed Delahanty, Philadelphia (1888-1903).
- CF—Jesse Burkett, Cleveland, St. Louis (1890-1905).
- C—Buck Ewing, New York.

blows to beat Frank Shea, veteran major leaguer down from the Yankees.

At Columbus, the Redbirds downed Minneapolis, 4-2, on Kurt Krieger's four-hitter then lost the seven inning afterpiece, 2-0.

Milwaukee solidified third place, 3 1/2 games out of first, with a double sweep at Louisville. Lefty Glenn Elliott twirled a nine hitter to take the opener, 5-3. George Estock limited the Colonels to four hits in the 4-0 nightcap victory.

Toledo maintained seventh place by dividing with St. Paul. The Saints captured the starter 8-4. The Mudhens registered an 8-0 blank in the closer.

NEW YORK, May 5—(AP)—Baseball was born barehanded, and it was not until 1875 that one Charles C. Waite broke with tradition by pulling an ordinary kid glove over his "meat" hand.

Other players were slow to follow him. They admitted that the glove offered protection, but they were afraid to risk the scorn of the fans and their teammates, and for a time only catchers wore them.

An accident to Arthur Irwin, shortstop of Providence in 1883, led to the present type of infielder's glove. Irwin broke a finger on his left hand. As few, if any, spares were carried in those days, it was necessary for him to continue in action. He bought a buckskin driving glove, several sizes too large and padded it to protect the bandage around his finger.

Life with the Tax Gremlins:

EDITOR'S NOTE: "Life with the Tax Gremlins" is a 12-part thumbnail story of the nation's complicated tax structure. It's from an "American Affairs" pamphlet published by the National Industrial Conference Board of New York, an independent, non-profit fact-finding institution supported by business, labor and other groups. Some of the articles include comment by Richard A. Mullens, Washington tax expert and author of NEA's annual "Income Tax Primer," which appears each year in the Sedalia Democrat.

This Year's Bond-Selling Campaign Will Stress Personal Savings Theme

THIS POSTER will carry 1950's savings bond slogan across the nation.

By Douglas Larsen
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Uncle Sam is all set with his annual drive to lure all loose dollars out of the mattress—the 1950 Savings Bond Campaign.

Slogan of this year's effort is "SAVE For Your Independence: Buy U. S. Savings Bonds." The intensive part of the drive will run from May 15 through July 4. The quota is the sale of $650,000,000 in Series E Bonds.

Newest aspect of this drive is the frank admission by Treasury officials that the annual government bond sales campaign is probably a permanent fixture. And from now, the basic sales appeal will stress bonds as personal savings. The purely patriotic appeal, which featured the great war bond drives and, to a lesser extent, the post-war bond drives, will be largely missing from this and future drives.

Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, in announcing the details of the '50 drive, reveals that U. S. citizens now hold $34,200,000,000 worth of outstanding Series E bonds. Monthly redemptions are running only five percent of this total. Total sales last year were $4,200,000,000, or just $16,000,000 less than the top post-war year of 1948.

Explaining the frank appeal on a pure savings basis, Snyder says: "Timing of the campaign lends itself to the signing up of new savers, especially young people finishing their education and embarking in business and professional careers. It will offer new opportunity to encourage the established saver to continue the habit of thrift, and to draw his attention to his current financial worth, and the wisdom of increasing the rate of growth in saving."

The usual high-powered hoopla has been cooked up by the Treasury's sales bond promotion staff for the campaign. President Truman and Snyder will formally open the drive May 15 with broadcasts on all the networks and with television shows. Movie theaters around the country are volunteering help, Hollywood has contributed some special films which will be shown during the campaign, and local and state volunteer agencies will help.

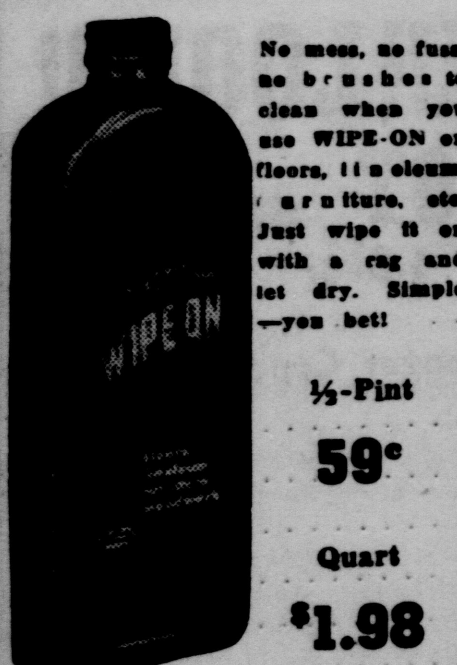

Centerpiece of the promotion will be 51 copies of the Liberty Bell which will be shown widely in each state, the District of Columbia, Alaska and Hawaii. Copper for the bells, which were made in France, was donated by U. S. copper companies, and the Ford Motor Company is donating the transportation to carry them around the country.

Each bell is an exact copy of the original Liberty Bell in Philadelphia, even to the crack. They are six feet high and weigh a ton.

Treasury officials are confident that the present prosperity of the country will permit the quota to be met quite easily. Last year's quota was $1,040,000,000, but the

Truman Sounds Warning

President in a Galesburg Talk Makes it Assailing The 'Isolationists'

By Ernest R. Vaccaro

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN, May 8—(P)—President Truman, declared today that the decisions the United States makes in the months ahead will determine whether there will be "a third world war."

In a talk to a train side crowd at Galesburg, Ill., the President assailed "isolationists" who would "let the rest of the world be swallowed up by Communism."

These men, Mr. Truman asserted, cannot "see beyond their noses." And forget "the terrible price" this country would have to pay for such a course.

"These same men who tell you we should economize by an isolationist policy," he said, "did the same thing after World War One and brought on 'World War Two.'"

"We will have a third world war, if we 'renege' on our allies, Mr. Truman said, just as 'Russia is renegeing on her allies.'"

Speaking on the fifth anniversary of his proclamation, of Allied victory over Nazi Germany, the president devoted much of his first "whistle stop" speech to a warning on the critical foreign situation.

Defending his so-called "non-political" cross-country speaking trip, which has been assailed by some Republicans, Mr. Truman said he is making "a report to the people" as he has "every right" and "privilege" to do.

Trip To Discuss Issues

He said he was making the trip to discuss "issues" and that he welcomed a discussion of "issues" and "not foolishness."

A next world war he warned, would not be fought entirely on foreign soil.

He said isolationists in this country are "helping Russia." He took a slap at the Republicans in his back platform talk. He told of wearing a white cap to school in Independence, Mo., in 1892 bearing the label "Cleveland-Stephenson."

Some "big Republican" boys took his cap away from him and "tore it up," he said.

"The Republicans have been trying to do that to me ever since," he said with his best campaign grin.

The course of the free nations, the president asserted, "is threatened over the world" by "totalitarianism."

He said he is trying to "work out" with other free nations, a course that will preserve their "democracy and freedom."

"The decisions we make in the next few months, will determine whether there will be a third world war," he added.

The president's address was broadcast locally.

Rousing Send Off

The crowd listened to the president respectfully but found few opportunities to cheer until he got a rousing send off at the close of his talk. Galesburg, in West Central, Ill., is usually heavily Republican.

A huge four-tiered cellophane wrapped cake was handed up to the president and Mrs. Truman, who came out on the platform at that moment.

A crowd estimated by country Democratic chairman B. L. Robinson at 15,000 turned out to greet the president at Burlington where his train made the first of four scheduled stops in Iowa.

In a rear platform appearance there, Mr. Truman spoke to his listeners about the work of the 81st congress. He said it had done a better job than the 80th congress and that when its work is finished the record will be better still.

In an reference to agricultural and labor problems the president declared that the income of farmers will remain high only if labor's wages are high too.

Introduces Wife and Daughter

The crowd cheered as Mr. Truman introduced his wife and daughter, Margaret, who are traveling on the special train.

Mr. Truman, traveling in campaign style through the midwest on his 66th birthday, led newsmen on their toughest walk to date at Chicago today.

It was 6 a. m., Chicago time (7 a. m. CST) when the president's check and told Van Time: "Thank you. You didn't have to do this."

Not Inclined For Special Session

JEFFERSON CITY, May 8—(P)—Gov. Forrest Smith said today it is "highly improbable" he will call a special session of the Missouri Legislature.

"You can put it that way," he told his news conference.

The governor said he had received a formal request from Mayor Joseph M. Darst, asking that a special session be called to extend the $7,000,000 a year St. Louis earnings tax. But Smith said he had not made final decision on it.

Then, in a general discussion of the problem, he made four points, all indicating he is not sold on the special session idea.

He granted that more money would be desirable to run the city, but:

(1) Bankers have told the governor they would let the city borrow money if necessary "at a ridiculously low rate of interest—under one per cent."

(2) The city has about $14,000,000 in its water fund. "They have been reaching into it and they can still do that if they want to."

(3) Outstate senators and representatives have told the governor they would not favor extending the present earnings tax unless it were submitted to a vote of the people at a referendum election.

(4) All the legislators felt about the same—if the earnings tax extension bill could not pass during all of last year's session, it could not pass now without a long drawn out fight in this election year.

Unless the one-half of one per cent tax is renewed, it will expire July 17.

Furious Storm Of Three Days Has Subsidied

Toll of 25 or More Dead; Floods In Its Wake

By The Associated Press

The furious three-day storm which killed at least 25 persons and cut a wide swath of destruction has blown itself out but flood damage continues mounting in Minnesota, North Dakota and across Canada to Winnipeg.

Unexpected squalls lashed the northeast and left 20 boatmen dead or missing in lakes, rivers and along the coastline of New York and New England.

At least 10 of the dead are missing were in upper New York state, seven in New York City and Long Island sound, and three in New England. About 40 other persons were rescued in the New York area as hundreds of small boats were flipped over by gusts of wind which measured 65 miles an hour.

The worst of the flood was at Winnipeg, Can., where the Red River had overflowed hundreds of blocks of the city and forced more than 4,400 persons from 2,000 homes.

The river was nine feet above flood stage and expected to rise even higher, perhaps another four feet when the crest hits the city of 350,000.

Crookston, Minn., was hit yesterday for the second time within two weeks by a flood of the Red-lake river. About 500 homes were evacuated.

The weather continued uncomfortably cold throughout the flood area. More rain, snow and some sleet were reported in North Dakota, Montana, Wyoming and western Nebraska and South Dakota today.

Some parts of the wheat belt where moisture is nearly always welcome also reported showers and thunderstorms today. At Concordia, Kas., the rain measured an inch and a half. Other rainfall reports came from Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and eastern South Dakota.

Elsewhere over the nation, the weather generally was fair and in (Please Turn to Page 6, Col 1)

Loan Years Ago Repaid Truman

BURLINGTON, Ia., May 8—(P)—A twenty-five dollar loan which President Truman made in 1918 to a cook in his World War One artillery outfit was repaid to him with interest today.

Elmer Van Tine, employe of the Iowa Oudance plant in Burlington, returned the money when the president's special train made its first Iowa stop here.

Van Tine handed Mr. Truman a check for $50, explaining half of it was interest. He borrowed the $25 after the armistice in 1918 so he could make a trip to Kansas City to join the Shrine with Mr. Truman.

The president accepted the check and told Van Time: "Thank you. You didn't have to do this."

Oath Is Upheld By Law

Legality as Being Non-Communist Is Declared by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, May 8—(P)—The Supreme Court today upheld legality of the non-Communist oath provision of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

The provision requires that union officials must file affidavits saying they are not Communists, if they wish to use machinery of the National Labor board.

Chief Justice Vinson delivered the opinion for the majority. Justice Jackson wrote an opinion which concurred in part and dissented in part. Justice Black wrote a dissenting opinion. Justice Frankfurter wrote an opinion concurring in part with the majority. Justices Douglas, Clark and Minton took no part in the cases.

Justices Reed and Burton completed the majority.

Attacked in Appeals

Validity of the non-Communist oath provision was attacked in separate appeals filed by two unions. They are:

(A) The anti-Communist CIO United Steelworkers headed by CIO president Philip Murray.

(B) The American Communications Association, awaiting outcome of a CIO expulsion hearing on the grounds of Communist sympathies.

Each of the unions contended the affidavit requirement violates the constitution's guarantees of free speech, press and assembly.

As phrased in the Taft-Hartley act, the oath reads:

"I am not a member of the Communist party, or affiliated with such party. I do not believe in and I am not a member of, nor do I support, any organization that believes in or teaches the overthrow of the United States government by force or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods."

Five Students Die In a Smashup

ARLINGTON, Tenn., May 8—(P)—Five Baylor university students were killed near here early today in the head-on smashup of their sedan and a trailer truck loaded with heavy materials.

The dead were tentatively identified as:

Jimmy Nelson, 22, Dallas, Tex. Betty Pierson, 19, Waco, Texas. Jeannette Boyd, 20, Dallas. David Roy Figart, 20, Waco.

James Percival Langley, Jr., 23, Sacramento, Calif.

Langley's landlady, contacted at Waco, said the five students left there last Monday to go to Lexington, Ky., so Figart's family could meet Miss Pierson, his fiancée.

The five bodies were taken to Memphis, 30 miles east of here.

Child One Year Old Killed As Cars Collide

URICH, Mo., May 8—(P)—One-year-old Dianne Kenney was killed near here Saturday night in the head on collision of two automobiles. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kenney, Garden City Mo.

The child was riding with her parents. Their auto collided with a car driven by Wesley Koger, Creighton, Mo., on state highway 35.

The Highway Patrol said the other occupants of the vehicles were not seriously injured.

Thought for Today

If thou wouldst be justified, acknowledge thy injustice; he that confesses his sin begins his journey toward salvation; he that is sorry for it mends his pace; he that forsakes it is at his journey's end.—Quailes.

Acheson Talks With Schuman

Discussion Had To Do With The Indo-China Issue

By the Associated Press

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson talked to French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman in Paris today in the first of his preparatory cold war talks before the big-three conference in London Thursday.

Acheson's meeting with Schuman was said to have dealt primarily with France's role in Indo-China. Diplomatic informants said he will ask for guarantees that the French-controlled regime of former Emperor Bao Dai be given genuine independence as a condition for speedy American aid in fighting off the Moscow-recognized opposition government of Ho Chi Minh.

It was not believed that any final decision would be made in the Paris talks. Acheson is also expected to discuss France's attitude toward Germany and Premier Georges Bidault's recent proposal to form a new "Atlantic council" for coordinating economic and political activities of the Western nations as well as military defenses against possible Communist expansion.

Aid Be Limited

Acheson's offer of aid for Indo-China is limited at present to the $15,000,000 President Truman has promised out of the $75,000,000 fund Congress appropriated for emergencies in fighting Communism in the Far East.

Some officials in Washington look for a formal announcement that the United States has started its long-awaited program of arms assistance for southeast Asia—including Indo-China—within the next few days.

The Finnish government averted a threatened general strike by offering a 15 percent wage boost today. The compromise offer came just three hours before the Socialist-led Trade Union Council's deadline. The TUC gave out the strike ultimatum last week after Premier Urho Kekkonen's government drafted striking railway engineers into military service. The draft order was rescinded Saturday.

Senator Anastasio Somoza was named today by the Nicaraguan Congress to fill out the term of President Victor Manuel Romany Reyes, who died Saturday in Philadelphia. The term ends in May, 1951.

Child Injured When Dragged By Bus

MOBERLY, Mo., May 8—(P)—Phyllis Dailey, 8, suffered shock, severe abrasions and a deep head laceration here Saturday while being dragged a half-mile by a school bus.

The child's coat became entangled in the rear bumper of the vehicle when she alighted. She was dragged along the gravel road until the bus stopped to discharge another passenger.

Explosion Wrecks Lumber Yard Office

KANSAS CITY, May 8—(P)—An explosion ripped through lumber yard office here yesterday, seconds after a night watchman fled from the building. The watchman, Henry Finkey, was not injured.

Police quoted Finkey as saying he ran from the building shortly after an object was thrown through a window in the office. Officers said he described the object as four sticks of dynamite, taped together, with a burning fuse attached.

Damage was confined to the office of the firm, the Sutherland Lumber Co.

Eyes of Nation On Rackets Probe

KANSAS CITY, May 8—(P)—A Jackson county grand jury was told today that the eyes of the nation will be turned on it during its investigation of rackets in Kansas City and the county.

The jury was called after a federal grand jury investigating rackets, released an interim report a week ago listing law violations coming under state but not federal laws.

However, in his charge to the jury, Circuit Judge Ray G. Cowan did not refer to the federal grand jury's report exposing the gambling and charging a tax-fixing graft in the county assessor's office under the administration of George R. Clark.

Senn Lawler, a movie chain executive, was named foreman of the jury of 10 men and two women.

"In the light of the nation-wide publicity which has spot-lighted Kansas City and Jackson county in recent weeks, the eyes of your fellow citizens as well as the nation will be focused on you during the entire period of your service," the judge told the jurors.

Saving there have been "many rumors" relating to the breakdown of law enforcement here, Judge Cowan called on the jury to "check into each and every one of these rumors and ascertain if any law enforcement officers have been negligent in fulfilling their prescribed responsibility."

She was released under $7,500 bond March 10 by order of appeals judges Joseph W. Woodrough and John B. Sanborn and Seth Thomas.

The hearing today was on her appeal to be discharged from the contempt citation.

Charge Refusal to Answer

Max H. Goldschtein, special assistant to the attorney general, opened the government's case, charging Miss Howard refused to answer questions by the special grand jury as to where she got some $18,000 deposited in her bank accounts since 1944.

Goldschtein told the judges Miss Howard did obstruct the workings of the grand jury and since she did obstruct justice she should be held for contempt.

Miss Howard told the grand jury investigating national crime syndicate activities in Kansas City that she got part of the $28,144 found in her bank accounts from a Jack Griffin, alias Jack Gregory. Griffin has been reported missing by police since 1934.

The jurors said she refused to tell where the rest of the money came from and Judge Duncan, when he sentenced her to jail for an indeterminate term, called her testimony about Griffin "preposterous fancy."

McLaughlin argued that the story about getting the money from Griffin, or Gregory, was "consistent with the truth and was not shown to be otherwise."

Contempt Case Is Being Heard

Appeals Judges Hear Arguments as To Blanche Howard

ST. LOUIS, May 8—(P)—Blanche Howard was jailed for contempt despite the fact she told what she believed to be true in her testimony before a U.S. grand jury, her attorney told the U. S. court of appeals today.

Ira B. McLaughlin of Kansas City told the three appeals judges—John B. Sanborn, Harvey Johnson and Walter Riddick—that neither the grand jury nor U. S. district Judge Richard M. Duncan had shown that her testimony before the jury was false.

The court recessed for lunch shortly after the government began presentation of its case.

Miss Howard, 43, described as a friend of the late Charles Gargotta, was ordered by Judge Duncan on Feb. 8 to show cause why she should not be cited for civil contempt. After a hearing Feb. 14 she was jailed on Judge Duncan's orders.

She was released under $7,500 bond March 10 by order of appeals judges Joseph W. Woodrough and John B. Sanborn and Seth Thomas.

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round
By Drew Pearson

Truman's Low Ebb

President Truman is taking his swing through the northwest at a time when his political barometer is the lowest since he lost control of Congress in 1946. The Pepper defeat in Florida plus the neck-and-neck Dixiecrat race in Alabama all go to support what the political dopesters previously predicted—that Truman stock is in the cellar.

There are four general reasons for his slump, as follows:

1. THE MCCARTHY CHARGES have cut deeper than Washington realized. While most people don't sympathize with McCarthy they believe that where there's smoke there's fire. Also they wonder why the administrative has lacked cohesive rebuttal.
2. THE KANSAS CITY MURDERS have focused attention on Truman and the Pen-dergast machine. Actually, Truman had sent his ace investigators into K.C., and deserves credit rather than blame for the Binaggio shootings. However, most folks don't know this—again due to poor public relations.
3. ECONOMIC UNREST—Farmers are irked at falling prices. Housewives are irked at wasted potatoes and price supports. The public is fed up with strikes and business is grouching about taxes.
4. LACK OF LEADERSHIP—Gradually, the public is coming to the conclusion that there isn't much leadership in Washington. They can't put their finger on anything definite, but they feel that the White House is drifting rather than leading.

All of the above means that the President not only has to make some real speeches on his trip, but has to organize more consistent teamwork after he gets home.

Merry-Go-Round

Jolly Senator Alex Wiley is afraid the Joe McCarthy business may bounce against him in Wisconsin. Wiley, senior GOP Senator from Wisconsin, is up for re-election in November. Of every visitor Wiley anxiously inquires, "What are they thinking at home about Joe's charges? They aren't saying I'm mixed up in them, are they?" . . . One reason why Harry Truman vetoed the Kerr natural gas bill is $,000 letters and telegrams in protest received in one hour. . . . Personable young Dave Lloyd has succeeded Clark Clifford as Harry Truman's chief ghost writer. . . . Jay Franklin, the Washington columnist who ghosted for the President in the 1948 campaign, is now penning prose for Gov. Tom Dewey—and doing a good job. . . . Keith Himebaugh, the crackjack public relations director for the Department of Agriculture, has just turned down a big job with the oil industry.

Anti-Histamine

The American Medical Association is the backstage partner of the Federal Trade Commission in its order against the commercial anti-histamine drugs. Tip-off was a hot editorial in the A.M.A. News complaining of "promotional campaigns that rival those for vitamins a few years ago."

Despite the medical association's opposition, doctors prescribed some 12,000,000 tablets and some 11,000,000 doses of the anti-histamine drugs in 1949. The Food and Drug Administration also okayed the anti-histamine drugs commercially in November 1949. One of the commercial anti-histamine drugs, inhistorin, is owned by the United States government through the alien property custodian.

Issues Were Clear in Florida; Middle-Roaders Victorious

By Bruce Bessent

The decisive victory scored over Sen. Claude Pepper by Rep. George Smathers in the Florida primary must be viewed as a triumph for the middle-roads.

The result means, of course, that Smathers will go to the Senate. In overwhelmingly Democratic Florida, the fall election is normally a mere formality. The primary is the real test.

The 36-year-old winner, a former Marine who once was a protégé of Pepper's, campaigned on a platform that was essentially anti-Administration. He spoke out for retention of the Taft-Hartley Law, against President Truman's health program, against his civil rights planks. He defined the issue as the "free state vs. the jail state."

Furthermore, Smathers bitterly assailed Pepper for alleged softness toward communism at home and abroad. This part of his campaign was largely personal, but voters could have gained the impression that Smathers would ally himself in the Senate with those trying to ferret out any traces of communism in the government.

Pepper, on the other hand, placed himself right in the vanguard of the Fair Deal. He urged repeal of Taft-Hartley and passage of Mr. Truman's health plan. In this latter he went beyond Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, who found it wise to adopt a more conservative position in the 1949 New York campaign.

Pepper defended his attitude toward Russia by saying he was sympathetic only so long as there appeared real hope of getting along with Stalin. He resorted to platform antics in an effort to discredit Smathers' charges on this. On the civil rights issue, Pepper found himself in a difficult spot. He contended that he was today against a fair employment practices commission, though he voted for a federal agency of that sort in wartime. Smathers suggested the senator was trying to play both sides of the street, that he actually is behind the President on all civil rights proposals.

There seems to be no question that many Florida Republicans registered as Democrats to cast their vote against Pepper. Undoubtedly, too, Smathers got the bulk of the business vote. But these elements alone could not have accomplished Pepper's defeat by so broad a margin.

Smathers commanded the support of veterans, of young voters who liked his looks and his University of Florida background, of doctors who favored his stand against health insurance. And, judging by the geographic breadth of his victory, he cut sharply into the labor and minorities groups which Pepper relied upon heavily.

In the light of the sharp division between the two men on basic national questions, any argument by Pepper or his Administration supports that this campaign was "purely local and personal" should probably not be taken too seriously.

Insurance Companies Oppose Government Disability Benefits

By Peter Edson
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Cash benefits for permanent and total disability—after a waiting period of six months—would be provided as a new, third form of social security if the Senate approves House-passed amendments to the law which now covers old age and survivors' insurance, and public assistance to the needy.

Insurance companies oppose this government venture into total disability benefits. Their own experience in this field has shown it to be unprofitable. They oppose it also because they fear it would ultimately be extended to government insurance for short-term disability of under six months, their most profitable field.

In their opposition to government disability benefits some of the insurance companies had a working agreement with the doctors who were campaigning against government health insurance.

The American Medical Association persuaded some of the insurance companies to mail out A. M. A. literature against health insurance. In return, A. M. A. supported the insurance companies' opposition to government protection against permanent disability, although in 1947 A. M. A. had supported disability insurance for chronic illness.

One important proposal for modification of these extreme views comes from Marian Folsom of Eastman Kodak. He supports the idea of government insurance for permanent and total disability of workers over 55 years old.

Today, if a workman of 60 becomes totally disabled, he must wait till he is 65 before he can begin drawing old-age insurance. By making permanent disability benefits available at age 55 or over, the costs would be controllable as they would cover only a 10-year period.

Principal base for criticism of disability insurance is primarily that there is no actuarial experience. A heavy drain on social security funds for the payment of permanent disability claims might wreck the whole system.

Also, there is a fear that if there were much unemployment, there might be considerable malingering—faking of illness in order to receive benefits. To reduce one source of malingering through disability insurance, the House did kill a proposal that additional payments could be made for dependents.

Seek to Extend Coverage to Farm Workers

Another of the most-discussed issues on social security revision concerns what classes of workers to take in. The main group now excluded is farmers and farm workers. The House-passed bill would take in some of them—nonfarm maple-syrup and mushroom processors, and post-harvest handlers of fruits and vegetables.

Senate Finance Committee members apparently feel that all farm workers should be brought in. But there is some political fear that farmers would resent this, and would not pay the tax.

One proposal is to provide social security coverage only on farms employing eight or more hands. In general, the farm organizations seem to favor taking in all farm workers.

Some spokesmen for the farmers, seeing social security benefits for city workers going up all the time, fear that farmers are getting the short end of the deal.

In the 80th Congress, Rep. Bertrand W. Gearhart of California sponsored a resolution which put house-to-house salesmen in the class of self-employed workers. The resolution passed, and it took 1,500,000 of such workers out from under ordinary social security coverage, although a previous Supreme Court decision had found that such workers should be considered as employees.

Effect of the Gearhart resolution was to free the employers of these salesmen from having to pay social security payroll taxes. The salesmen themselves, however, had to pay one and one-half times the normal payroll deductions, since they were classed as self-employed.

Employers of these salesmen want to keep the Gearhart resolution definition of employee, so they won't have to pay the tax. These employers constitute one of the most active pressure groups opposing changes in the social security system, since the House-passed bill would reclassify house-to-house salesmen as employees.

The noisiest groups against social security law revision, however, are the policemen, firemen and teachers who now have pension plans of their own which they consider better than social security. The House-passed bill would bring these groups into the social security system if two-thirds of their members voted to come under the law.

Abundant Living

E. STANLEY JONES

John 16:32; Matt. 28:19-20; 14:16-21

NEVER ALONE!

As you turn away from all negativism and inferiority attitudes to positive, abundant living, now take the next step. (10) Remember that you are not alone—never alone. At the time of seemingly greatest aloneness He is closest, watching every move on the checkerboard of life.

The American Indians trained their boys in courage by making them spend a night in the forest amid the wild animals. How dreadfully alone each boy would feel on the night of his testing; but when the day began to dawn he would see his father behind a nearby tree with drawn bow. Without the son's knowledge, the father had been watching all night to see that no harm should befall the son. So is God with us. John Wilhelm Rowntree tells how, when he left a great physician's office where he had been told that his advancing blindness could not be stayed, he stood by some railings for a few moments to collect himself. "Suddenly I felt the love of God wrap him about as though an invisible presence enfolded him, and a joy filled him such as he had never known before." That Presence will manifest Himself when most needed.

Say to yourself, "I live and move and have my being, in all inner thoughts and outer expression, in the wealth of God every moment. And say this when you least feel the truth of it and keep saying it."

And to the above statement add these words as you go forth to meet life: "With the peace of God in my heart and with good will toward my fellow men I am ready for the work of the day." And you will be ready for the work of the day!

Then when you lie down to sleep say to yourself again: "Today I have lived and moved and have had my being in God, and while I sleep I still live and have my being in Him. He will guide and purify my dreams and in the morning I shall be further along." Those who have the gales of the Spirit are carried forward even in sleep," says Brother Lawrence.

O God, You and I will work this out together. I am yet weak and can take only a small part of the load—You'll have to take the heavy end. But You have my will and, when it develops, You'll have my strength, too. I thank Thee. Amen.

The Doctor Says—

Stomach Ulcer Treatments Often Aim at Nervous Cause

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Nearly every year several "new" treatments for ulcer of the stomach are reported in the medical journals and newspapers. Patients are reported cured and the new treatment is widely hailed as the final answer to a difficult problem. Generally this is followed by a long period of silence and often nothing further is heard about it.

The reason this happens so often is probably because an ulcer of the stomach can be affected by so many things—diet, nervous strain and perhaps by other influences which we do not understand so well. Consequently many kinds of treatment bring a temporary improvement.

Actually most of the treatments for ulcer are aimed at either the stomach itself or the nervous cause. The acid which is normally present in the stomach tends to increase in the presence of ulcer and this acid is irritating, thus preventing healing of the ulcer. Many of the treatments used, therefore, are aimed at eliminating or minimizing this irritating quality of the acid in the stomach thus permitting the ulcer a greater chance to heal itself.

One of the most common treatments consists in frequent feedings of alkalis (such as soda) which combat the acid, and milk and cream and other small meals. Some gelatin-like substances called mucins are supposed to coat the area of the ulcer and protect it from the irritating acid stomach juices.

But these are only a few of the many treatments which have been tried for ulcer; the injection of foreign proteins, the administration of amoniac acids which are the building blocks of proteins and many others.

Ulcers tend to come back and the symptoms get worse whenever a person is subjected to undue mental or nervous strain. For this reason some people think that the eventual solution of the ulcer problem will be some method of

Rest Is Important

Whatever the treatment employed, best results are usually obtained when the patient starts the treatment by going to bed and staying there for about three weeks. In this way the nervous strain of modern living and contact with other people is largely removed, at least temporarily.

An initial period of bed rest in the hospital, where the condition can be closely watched is generally recommended. Smoking increases the amount of acid secreted in the stomach and therefore heavy smoking is generally forbidden for patients with an active ulcer.

Dr. Jordan will answer questions from his readers in a special column once a week. Watch for it.

THE STORY: Falling in love had been far from Clemency Norton's idea when she became a nursery governess to Baba, small daughter of Syria and Jon Amberley who live at the home of Joe's brother Piers in Algeria. But soon Clemency finds she has lost her heart to Piers. Syria, despairing of her weeping husband and in love with Piers herself, is sure to over Clemency's engagement to him. Jon tells Clemency that before his marriage to Syria Piers were engaged and he only invited her to live at his home so he and Syria could be together. Clemency, indignant over this story on Piers' part, sees Piers, but finds him talking with Syria. Clemency rushes out of the room, and Syria keeps Piers from explaining. Later Syria appears in the nursery where Baba is ill and leads Clemency to believe that Jon's remarks were the truth.

Clemency swung around to find him standing by an open door on the other side of the passage. "Miss Norton!" He looked at her in amazement. "What's up?" And as she told him his face changed. "Baba ill!" He frowned at Syria's door. "Syria's probably taken some sleeping stuff—anyhow she would be no good. I'd better come with you. What's up—tummy?"

"Oh, no—I could cope with that," she answered. "I'm terribly afraid, Mr. Amberley, that it may be—pneumonia."

"What—" He was interrupted by the opening of Syria's door. "What on earth's the matter? It's the crack of dawn yet," she said crossly, her eyes heavy with sleep.

"Baba's ill," Jon told her curtly. "We ought to get a doctor at once."

"Oh, good gracious!" exclaimed Syria fretfully. "What on earth's the matter with her?" "Pneumonia."

"Syria looked at him contemptuously. "What nonsense—she's got an ordinary cold."

HOW could they stand there arguing—and so helpless, thought Clemency angrily. "I am afraid it may be pneumonia, Mrs. Amberley," she said. "I have seen a case of it before—but the doctor will know. If you will tell me where to ring him—"

"Jon, ring Dr. Rigaud," Syria looked imperiously at her husband. "I've no idea of his number, and I doubt very much if we'll get through to Biskra at this hour." There was a note of helpless panic in Jon's voice.

"Tell Piers," said Syria. "He'll know what to do. She's Jon's face darkened. "No need for Piers. I can manage—I'll find Rigaud's number."

As soon as her husband had left, whatever "type" is approved by her little circle of friends.

Women Prefer to Be 'Types' Rather Than to Be Persons

"American women are not individualistic. They are a stamped type—too much alike," criticized a Norwegian author after a recent visit to America.

It's a just enough criticism, but then it's easy to see why American women do run to types. In America individualism in a woman seldom pays off.

From the teen-age girl to the settled matron, the big idea is how to be enough like the crowd so as not to arouse antagonism.

Women of all ages are pretty hard on the girl or woman who dares to be different in looks, attitudes or interests.

Non-Fiction New Books at Public Library

"Worlds in Collision," by Dr. Immanuel Velikovsky, is ready for circulation at the Sedalia Public Library. Since its preview entitled "The Day the Sun Stood Still," which appeared in the January issue of Harper's Magazine, the book has attracted wide comment and criticism. It contains thousands of references to folklore and ancient mythology upon which Dr. Velikovsky bases his controversial theory.

Other non-fiction titles added to the library collection in the past week are:

History—"The Grand Alliance," Churchill; "The American Mind," Cammager; "The Saskatchewan," Dulles; "Treason," Weyl; "The Negro in the U.S.," Frazier.

Instruction—"Culbertson's Bowl under the baton of Dr. Madge, one of America's foremost music educators. Students for the northwoods music camp, known as the "greatest single center of youth culture in the United States," are selected on the basis of character, scholarship and outstanding artistic ability. With a faculty of 90 teachers, chosen from universities and colleges throughout the nation, the music camp also offers courses in the drama, dance, opera, radio, art and recreation on four educational levels, junior, intermediate, high school and college.

Miscellaneous—"Humanity and Happiness," Brochmann; "Best Sports Stories of 1950," Marsh; "How to Wage Peace," Rosen; "The Higher Happiness," Sockman; "Jealousy in Children," Ziman.

Meeting Is Postponed

The May meeting of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers club is being postponed to Wednesday, May 17. All members will be notified by phone of the plans for the meeting.

Sedalia Students To Music Camp

Two young students from Sedalia have been accepted for enrollment at the world famed National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan, according to an announcement received today from Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, director of the camp.

Charles F. Walch, 711 West Broadway (high school division). He is the son of Harry W. Walch.

Ruth Ann Yunker, 1214 South Carr (university division). She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yunker.

The camp will open its 23rd season on June 25 and will continue through eight weeks of concentrated study in the arts, closing on August 21. A capacity enrollment of 1,000 young students from all over America and several foreign countries will be on hand for the opening concert in the famous outdoor Interlochen Bowl under the baton of Dr. Madge, one of America's foremost music educators. Pettis County Farm and Home News

New Egg Law In State Soon Be Effective

Expected To Give Consumer Higher Quality Of Eggs

The new Missouri Egg Law which becomes effective soon will affect the majority of farmers in Pettis county. All who produce eggs to be sold for food will feel the effects of this program. Consumers of eggs will be more certain to get the quality of eggs they pay for. The quality of eggs going to market should be greatly improved under this program.

Section 9906 says "Those engaged in buying and selling eggs for food in Missouri shall candle all eggs bought from producers during the period of June 1 to December 31 inclusive. Inedible eggs shall be candled out, rejected and returned or charged back to the seller. Such dealers are required to have a license."

Section 9907 in part says all candled eggs shall be identified by a candling certificate placed on the top layer of the eggs in each case. This certificate shall remain in each case until the eggs are sold.

In accordance with Section 9908 the following grades have been set up: "Missouri AA", "Missouri A", "Missouri B", "Missouri C". While grading is not required by law, eggs not graded will be labeled "unclassified" eggs or "no grade". Producers, of course, selling eggs that will grade "C" or better will sell at a lower price than the graded eggs. This will certainly occur when the consuming public learns the difference.

Must Label Size

All eggs must be labeled as to size: Jumbo, Extra Large, Medium, Small or Pewee.

To qualify for "AA" the eggs must be clean, unbroken with air cells 1/4 inch or less in depth, with clear firm white and a well centered yolk. Eggs falling in "A" grade must be clean and unbroken, with an air cell of 1/2 inch or less in depth and the white clear and reasonably firm and the yolk fairly well centered. The lower grades will consist of clean eggs, air cells of 3/8 inch or more and yolks off center. Some other factors are included in grading.

As the consuming public becomes familiar with this program the higher the grade the better the public will like them. They will get what they pay for. This will be an inducement for producers to market higher quality eggs as the net returns will increase with higher grades.

Some suggestions are offered by the County Extension office on production of eggs and on marketing to get this higher price.

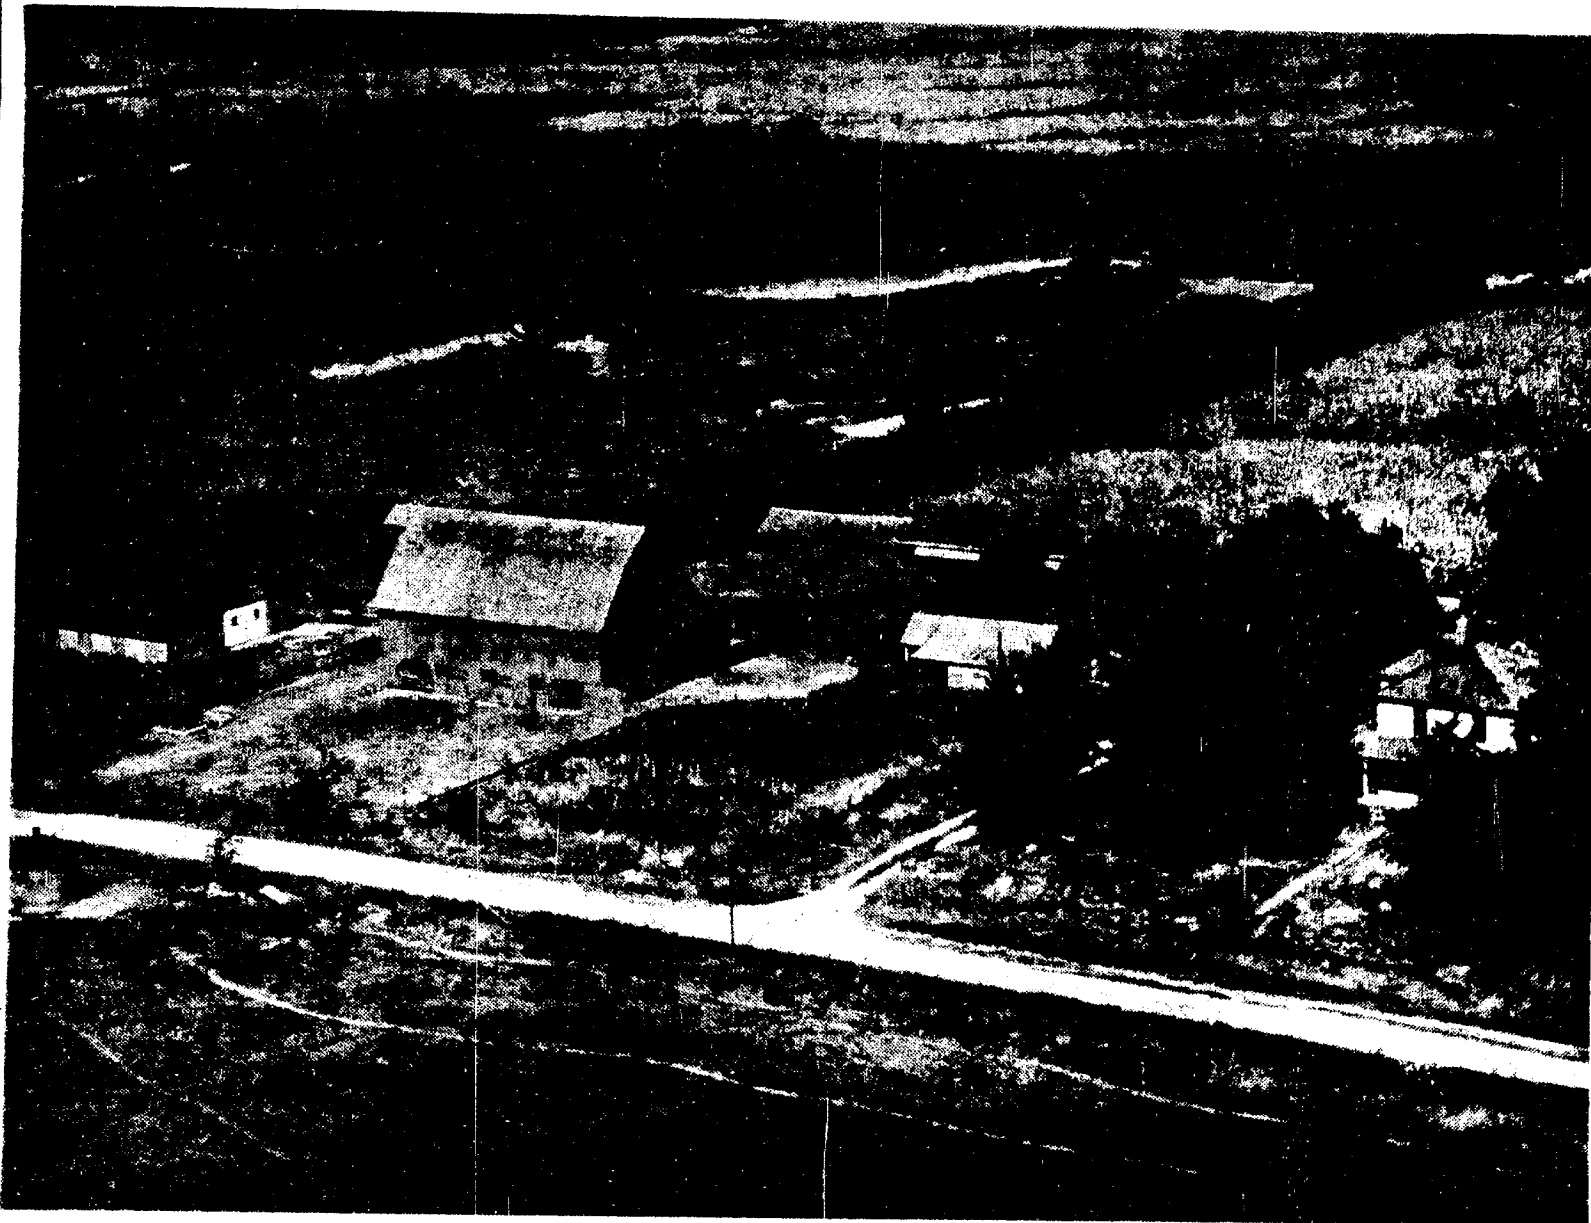

It will be noted that all eggs in "AA", "A", "B", and "C" must be clean. This means dirty eggs will fall into an "unclassified" grade. Hence it will be worth while to keep eggs clean. Proper nests and equipment will aid in this as will more frequent gathering. Those eggs with a small amount of dirt can best be cleaned with steel wool or sandpaper. Use of water will cause interior deterioration and may cause the egg to go in a lower grade.

The size of the air cell is used as an index in determining the age of eggs. Loss of moisture and high temperature increase the rate of evaporation thus enlarging the air cell. Frequent gathering of the eggs, gathering the eggs in a wire basket, covering them out in this wire basket in a cool moist place and have the cases, fillers and flats cool when the eggs are cased will aid greatly. Marketing should be done twice a week if possible.

This program likely will discourage the keeping of small sized flocks and encourage the keeping of larger units as is recommended in a good balanced farming program. Previously there has not been enough spread between "good", "medium" or "bad" eggs for the producer to encourage him to do a good job, except where he has been taking advantage of the opportunity offered on selling on the quality basis.

Producers likely gradually will

Mystery Farm Pictures in Central Missouri---

Whose farm is it?

Occupants of the above farm home may have wondered this spring about a plane buzzing low over their buildings. The picture explains it. The airplane pilot didn't know whose farm it was. The two of them just flew around the Central Missouri area served by the Sedalia Democrat-Capital newspapers and took pictures. They couldn't take pictures of all the farms but they got as many good shots as possible during the light time.

Strive toward a flock of sufficient size to make it worth while to put the industry on a more business basis, thus using labor saving equipment. Those not interested in this may reduce their flock size down to a point that will result in production of just enough birds to provide eggs and chickens for home consumption. The Extension office will be glad to furnish additional information on the production of quality eggs and the marketing of these eggs.

High Herd Honor To E. C. Stevens

E. C. Stevens gets the honor for high herd and high individual cow in the April report of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association, reports Eugene Dowdy supervisor in his report to the Extension office.

Mr. Stevens' 29 Jerseys average production was 711 pounds of milk containing 34.3 pounds butterfat. This includes as do the other herds the dry cows in his herd. He had 6.8 dry cows.

Lee Yeater & Son had the second high herd with 41.5 Holstein's (3.7 dry cows). His production per cow was 974 pounds milk and 34.2 pounds fat.

Gene Helman's 26 Holsteins (6 dry cows) averaged 880 pounds milk and 30.3 pounds fat.

Harold Alcorn's 12 Guernseys (3 dry cows) averaged 448 pounds milk and 22.1 pounds fat.

Peters and Van Dyne herd of 28 cows (8 dry) produced an average of 507 pounds milk and 21.7 pounds fat.

One noticeable thing about the report is the difference in feed cost per cow where plenty of pasture was available as compared to little or no pasture. The low feed cost on the five high herds was $6.50 per cow while the high cost was $17.45 per cow. Again this emphasizes the importance of dairymen having rye or sweet

So about once a week hereafter, until the pictures run out.

The mystery farm picture which appeared in the Democrat-Capital last Monday was identified by P. M. Licklider, route 4, as his farm home. The farm is located four miles southwest of Sedalia on the old Highway 65-Green Ridge road and contains 308 acres of land.

Mr. Licklider does more or less general farming, raises cattle and some chickens. He purchased the farm seven years ago after disposing of his farm near Ottumwa, and has since resided there.

He has remodeled the farm home and it is now modern in every respect. The home and buildings near the residence have electricity. There are three large barns, one barn used for his milking barn, has concrete flooring, a loft with a capacity of 50-tons of hay; another is his granary and cattle barn, the third is a large barn which stores 100-tons of hay. A small machinery barn is nearby.

As is a chicken house which accommodates 300 laying hens. Mr. Licklider is a builder and cabinet maker by trade and worked in Kansas City many years. He says he has had farms for nearly thirty years.

At present he has about 100 head of cattle. He raises mostly oats, wheat, corn and hay, and has about 200 acres of land in blue grass.

The entire farm is well fenced and he used hedge posts.

exhibits and a yearling ewe class added to the previous classes. In addition there will be an increase in the premium money offered.

The Danish system of judging will be used with awards made on a blue ribbon, red ribbon, and white ribbon basis.

Tentative plans call for again holding the show at the Missouri Pacific Stockyards if possible. It is hoped that the 1950 show will be much bigger and better than the 1949 show which was considered very successful for a new undertaking. Every 4-H club member enrolled in 4-H livestock, dairy, or poultry projects should begin now to make preparation for

Notices Sent On Approved Farm Practices

Chairman Of PMA Committee Says They Mailed Out

Notices of 1950 approved practices have now been mailed to all farmers participating in the Agricultural Conservation Program, stated Jas. A. Harvey, chairman of the Pettis county PMA committee. With these notices was enclosed a letter explaining the availability of additional assistance on five soil conservation practices to those farmers who would carry out such practices on their farms this year.

A total of $39,400 has been designated to be used for this special assistance and thus far requests for nearly one-third of this amount has been received but no definite allocations have been made for any farm by the county committee. Farmers who plan to perform one or more of these five special practices which include the construction of soil waterways, standard terraces, diversion terraces, farm ponds, and the establishing of permanent pasture are urged to contact the county PMA office and file their request even though the practice may not be performed until later this fall.

Specific Requirements
"Specific requirements have been set up according to the recommendations of the Missouri College of Agriculture for the performance of all practices approved by the ACP committeemen to meet specifications for payment. It is necessary that at least the minimum requirements on all practices be met before assistance will be finally approved on any 1950 practices", states Harvey, "and this is especially true of the requirements on the five 'special' practices. These will be given strict supervision by the members of the county PMA committee and programmen."

Specifications for practice No. 1—Establishing Terrace Outlets and Sod Waterways are: Permanent grassed outlets for terraces are to be constructed by transversely leveling an area adjacent to the lower ends of the proposed terraces to carry the expected run-off. The outlets shall have a minimum width of 16 feet and adequate earthen berms shall be provided on each side of the outlet to confine the water. Perennial grasses must be heavily seeded on the outlets and berms.

In construction of a sod waterway, the channel of the waterway must have a minimum width of 16 feet at the narrowest point and be side enough to carry the run-off from the drainage area. The sod waterway may be established by plowing or disking, leveling, and erecting players and softball games will also be worked out at this time.

Plan for 4-H Sunday May 21

Pettis County 4-H club members are making plans for the observance of 4-H Sunday by their local clubs on May 21. In the past, 4-H Sunday has been held in conjunction with Rural Life Sunday but this year Rural Life Sunday is to be observed on May 14 which is also Mother's day, thus the change in date was made.

Last year 20 Pettis county clubs observed 4-H Sunday by conducting their own services, assisting in the regular church service of the local church or by attending church as a group. Over the state 1,245 clubs in 109 counties participated in the 4-H Sunday service. The total attendance at these services was over 40,000 persons with approximately one-half the whole state 4-H membership taking part. Efforts are being made to get every club in Pettis county to observe Club Sunday this year.

4-H Sunday is closely connected with Rogation days, celebrated for centuries in the Christian church during the three days preceding Ascension day, and is usually held on the fifth Sunday after Easter.

otherwise preparing a good seedbed, fertilizing and liming, if necessary, and seeding a sufficient amount of perennial grasses to establish a heavy sod.

Adequate cross berms for controlling erosion in the terrace outlet or sod waterway until the sod is well established must be provided.

No payment will be made on a terrace outlet or sod waterway established prior to 1950, unless the county committee determines by inspection and prior approval that it is necessary to tear up the old sod, cultivate, relevel, and establish a new sod cover.

(applicable only where the seed-terrace outlet or sod waterway only when a member or representative of the county committee inspects the site and gives prior approval for the construction.

Assistance rates: (a) for cultivation and establishing the sod—75c per 1,000 square feet, and (b) for moving earth with dirt-moving equipment—12c per cubic yard (applicable only where the seed-

The observance of Rogation days is a carry over from the ancient Egyptian ceremony of blessing the land and seed at the time of planting.

4-H club members assembling together to worship on 4-H Sunday will join a long succession of past generations in seeking the blessings of God upon their land, the seed, the cultivation of the soil, and the enrichment of home and community life.

Time Now To Put In Warm Season Crops

The following is taken from "Next Week in the Garden" prepared by Clyde Cunningham, Extension Horticulturist of the Missouri College of Agriculture, University of Missouri. More details on these are available at the County Extension office.

The seed bed should be fine and mellow on top and firm underneath. Don't work the ground when the soil is sticky.

It's time to plant warm season crops such as tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, sweet potatoes, beans, sweet corn, peanuts, okra and vine crops as cucumbers, watermelon, cantaloupe, pumpkin and squash.

Some of these are quite important. We need the tomatoes and yellow vegetables. For variety in yellow vegetables, plant sweet potatoes, pumpkin and squash, as well as carrots.

Get good plants. Make certain they are the variety you want and free from disease.

Beans and sweet corn can be used in successive plantings. Try quick freezing some of these. This saves work and frozen vegetables retain most of their natural flavor, color and texture of fresh foods.

Good Food Producer

Sweet potatoes will produce more pounds of food for the area than most crops. Classified as a yellow vegetable, sweet potatoes are higher in total food value than Irish potatoes. Plant healthy plants in soil that is not infested. Many farms have a better place to store and keep sweet potatoes than Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes keep best at a temperature not lower than 55 degrees Fahrenheit and relatively dry.

Why not try a few peanuts. They are a high quality food and are not difficult to grow.

If you have never had okra in your garden, you might like to try it. Learn how to grow it, how to cook it and then learn to like it. It can be sliced and fried, stemmed and in soups. Harvest the pods before the tough stringy fiber begins to develop if you want it before it gets slick.

Of course you will want sweet corn. Three good varieties are: Gold Rush, Golden Cross Bantam and Ioana.

Several new bean varieties are on the market this year. One that should be tried is Top-Crop. Until better ones have proved themselves the Tender Pod is still recommended. It's a bush bean. The pods are full, almost round, green in color, slightly curved and with a distinctive longer tail than most varieties. It is a good yielder and generally produces longer than Tendergreen or Improved Green Pod.

Butter Nut Squash may have three advantages as compared to other varieties. It can be used as either summer squash or stored for fall and winter use. It is relatively small and one or two at a time will be used by a family without a large amount of leftovers which often happen with larger types. The flesh is even-textured and of a light yellow color. The skin is light yellow and smooth when it reaches maturity. One planting should produce squash early for fresh use and then on until frost.

Fertilizer Pays High

Fertilizer pays well on vegetables. If you did not use fertilizer on the early vegetable it isn't too late to add some now. Peas, cabbage, broccoli and cauliflower will especially benefit by fertilizing applications. When the plants are well established, after transplanting, add fertilizer along the side of the row and work it into the soil with cultivation. Other early vegetables will also show a favorable response to fertilizer at this time of year.

This fertilizer should be applied at a rate of one pound (about two cups) of a complete fertilizer such as 4-12-4 or 8-8-8 to 100 feet of row.

The nitrogen in commercial fertilizer is soluble and the spring rains will carry it even deeper into the soil than where you place it. This makes it readily available to the roots of the garden vegetables. The nitrogen in organic matter and manures is rather slowly available during cooler weather and becomes more rapidly available as the soil warms up in the spring. It is during this

Approximately 350 Pettis County 4-H'ers, parents, and leaders attended the annual 4-H Recreation night program held at Convention hall on Saturday night, April 29.

The program, conducted entirely by club members, got under way with a get acquainted game where by each participant was required to get the signatures of various other individuals whose name corresponded to a letter in the participants name. This game provided a means for everybody to become better acquainted with one another.

Many games, including folk games, action games and mixer games were played during the evening under the direction of Miss Anna Lee Harvey, game leader of the 4-H council and a committee working under her direction.

After the serving of refreshments consisting of cola and cookies the remainder of the evening was spent in square dancing which was enjoyed by the adults as well as the 4-H'ers.

In Charge of Program

The committee in charge of the recreation did a splendid job of planning and carrying out the evening's program. Members of this committee, were, in addition to Miss Harvey, Alberta Runge and Elva Huddleston of the Georgetown 4-H club, Lillian Banner of the Striped College Club, Ed Hoehns of the Ringen-Brushy club, J. D. Schlobohm from the Oak Grove club, and Emmett Fairfax of the South Abell club.

The refreshment committee which was in charge of serving consisted of Charles Long from the Van Natta club, Forrest Eugene Reid of the Prairie Ridge club, time before the soil warms up that early vegetables especially need nitrogen supplied by commercial fertilizer.

Joyce Walk from the Brown club and Mary Jo Welliver of the Flat Creek 4-H club.

Robert Charles from the Elder Ridge-Oak Grove club and Forrest Eugene Reid of the Prairie Ridge club provided the music for square dancing with their lively numbers played on the violin and guitar.

Promotion Of Good Terracing

To promote good terracing work in Missouri an association of contractors was organized in Missouri a number of years ago. The following contractors who operate in Pettis county are now members of this association—Arnold Fischer, Jack Fischer, James Bahner, Marvin Howard, all of Sedalia and Ed Vaughan of Knob Noster.

These members pledge themselves to follow the recommendations of the Agricultural Engineering Department of the Missouri College of Agriculture, University of Missouri through the Extension Agricultural Engineers and the local County Extension Agent.

One of the main objectives is to sponsor nothing but high quality work and workmanship by the individuals comprising the association. The association sets as its standard quality work governed by specifications set forth by the Agricultural Engineering Department of the College of Agriculture, University of Missouri. The members of the Association guarantee each other and the public that only work of recognized good standards will be undertaken. Members of the association stand back of their work. If perchance the work done does not come up to standard, members are obligated to make the work good.

Demonstrate Constructing Of Spillway

A demonstration on the construction of a concrete soil saving dam has been announced by Associate County Agent Merle Vaughan. It will be held on the John Ryan farm 5 miles northeast of Sedalia on Friday afternoon May 19th.

These dams are actually concrete spillways designed to let water down from a terrace outlet into a natural water course. Such a structure prevents the water from cutting a ditch back up the outlet.

These structures are made by plastering 4 inches of concrete on shaped earth forms. No regular form material is needed. It is reinforced with hog wire. This dam was designed by Agricultural Engineers at the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station and because it does not need form material, it is popular for its low cost.

The one to be built at Mr. Ryans will drop the water in the terrace outlet down about 4 feet into the field ditch and will take about 4-5 yards of concrete.

At least 500 terrace outlets have been built in Pettis County since 1946. Probably over half or at least 250 of them need structures

4-H campers for the 4-H camp to be held at Knob Noster State park from July 21-24 has not yet been fully reached. Any 4-H club member who wishes to go to camp is requested to make application soon. A deposit of $1.50 is required from each 4-H'er who plans to attend camp.

similar to the one that will be built May 19th. Folks who need such structures should make it a point to attend the meeting and learn how they are designed and built.

The demonstration will actually be held on the north side of Mr. Ryan's farm which is on the "Beaman blacktop" and about 2½ miles west of Beaman. It will start at 1 o'clock sharp so that the pouring of the concrete can be completed as early as possible. Remember it is Friday afternoon May 19th.

Further information regarding the meeting may be obtained at the County Extension office.

Time Short on Youth Program

Time is running short for 4-H club members who plan to contribute to the International Farm Youth Exchange program and haven't yet done so, according to Bryan Phifer, assistant county agent.

The money should be in the State 4-H office this week if at all possible so that the state office will know how they stand financially in this project.

If the goal of $1,900 is reached, both Scott Sawyer, a 4-H'er from Nodaway county and Ruby Jean Krause, a Saline county club member will be able to go overseas. As

The south it continued warm. Muddy Waters at Winnipeg. WINNIPEG, Manitoba, May 8.—(P)—Hundreds of blocks of this great prairie city lay beneath a sea of muddy water today as troops and civilian volunteers worked wearily to bolster sagging levees against a new flood threat from North Dakota and Minnesota.

Silt-laden water swirled through many Winnipeg streets, paralyzing communications and transport on the outskirts, and authorities warned that the worst is yet to come.

The city may face two flood crests as spring torrents pour down the Red river from the rain-soaked northern United States. The first crest is expected within the next few days.

Meanwhile, the Canadian army warned some 1,500 residents in low lying areas to flee at once because the dikes might break at any time. More than 4,400 persons already have been evacuated from their homes, from hospitals and from the city jail.

An estimated 4,000 other persons have fled from a dozen small Canadian towns engulfed by the flood waters in the 80-mile stretch from the U. S. border to Winnipeg.

Brig. R. E. A. Morton, flood relief director, said water 23 feet deep might soon pour over damaged sections of the dike protecting low lying residential districts of suburban Norwood and East Kildonan.

"The danger is real," he said. "Everything is continuing to be done to prevent a calamity."

More than 2,000 Winnipeg homes have been abandoned to the flood and damage estimates range into millions of dollars.

The river rose two inches yesterday to a level of 27.3 feet more than nine feet above flood stage. Authorities said they expected the first crest might add four more feet.

Ed McKim, Omaha insurance man, met the train, and Mr. Truman took a walk with him and Bill Mox, a circulation official of the Chicago Sun-Times, during the hour and 10 minute Chicago stop-over.

The president walked fully a mile along the tracks, picking his way along the ties like an old hand.

Hungry newspapermen tagged along. No politicians showed up at the yards and the president said he hadn't expected any in view of his plans to speak in Chicago a week from tonight.

"Advocate Ways of Spending" WASHINGTON, May 8.—(P)—Rep. Arends (R-Ill.) said today the purpose of President Truman's cross-country trip is "to advocate new ways of spending money."

Arends, assistant GOP House leader, said in a statement: "If he were making this tour into 18 states to explain to the American people the absolute necessity of saving every dollar possible the taxpayers would probably consider this extraordinary expense estimate at $250,000 to pay for this trip to be a good investment."

"Unfortunately, that is not the purpose of the trip. He is making this trip to repeat his promises of something for everybody which in the end means nothing for any one."

Not Required To Admit Negro

JEFFERSON CITY, May 8.—(P)—The city of St. Louis does not have to permit a Negro teacher's college student to enter its municipally operated teachers' college for white students, the Missouri Supreme court held today.

The court reversed a decision of a St. Louis Circuit Court by declaring Marjorie Vanderbil Toliver, a Negro, can be barred from admission to St. Louis' Harris Teachers college. The city also operates Stowe Teachers college for Negro students, the school where Miss Toliver studied for a while.

Miss Toliver asked that she be admitted to Harris because she couldn't always get the books she wanted in the Stowe library and because the Negro school didn't have equal accreditation with the white school.

The Supreme Court noted, however, that the Negro school has now—and had before Miss Toliver took her case to court—the same accreditation as Harris Teachers college.

The court also cited testimony that Stowe, like Harris, lacks some books in the library—that no school could have all the books its students might want.

Pair Accused Of Robbery Arraigned

Charged in Holdup Of the Jerry Brown Service Station

Two men, charged with robbery were bound over today to the circuit court, criminal division for the June term, after appearing in Magistrate court, before acting Magistrate John C. McCloskey.

Both men are charged with the robbery occurring on the night of April 28 at Jerry Brown Motor company, 201 North Missouri avenue, when the service attendant, W. H. Cramer was grasped by a Negro, while a white man and a woman searched his pockets, and stole $17.50 of his money.

Joe Hunter waived his preliminary hearing in Magistrate court, but LeRoy Cannon, Jr., Negro, asked for a hearing, and following a preliminary examination, he was bound over to the circuit court.

On the night of the robbery, it was reported to police the robbers made way with about $90 of Jerry Brown's money, and $17.50 and a package of cigarettes belonging to Cramer.

Cramer told police on the night of the robbery, a white man came in the station, and told Cramer, "I want your money." He related to police that a Negro and a Negro woman came from a rest room inside, and the Negro man grasped him around the throat, while the white man and the Negro woman went through his pockets and desk drawers, took his and the company's money, then shoved him into the rest room and told him not to come out for awhile, until they made their get-away.

Cannon was represented in magistrate court this morning by attorney Harold Bamburg.

Irregular Close on New York Stocks

NEW YORK, May 8.—(P)—The stock market closed irregularly lower today after a quiet session. There was little action either on the buying or selling score, and changes were held within a fractional range.

The volume of trading at a rate of 1,700,000 shares for the entire day was one of the lowest in a month.

General Motors was off more than a point at times. New contract negotiations are coming up, and there is the threat of a strike in the background. Chrysler, which just ended a 100-day strike moved up to a new high on top of strength shown Saturday. It didn't hold there, however, and slipped back.

Gold mining shares were sought out in the market. Radio-television issues, which have been out of favor, found no demand today. Steels were neglected as were the rails.

Stocks a little higher today included Standard Oil (N.J.), Baruch, U. S. Steel, Gypsum, Commonwealth Edison, Kennecott Copper, Homestake Mining, Dome Mines, Benguet Consolidated, Dow Chemical, American Tobacco, K. I. Case, U. S. Rubber and Sears Roebuck.

Miss Monroe is Club Speaker

The Flat Creek Extension club held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. Ralph Milburn. Eighteen members and two visitors were present. The visitors were: Mrs. Henry Mahnken and Mrs. Chmelir. A contributive covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at noon. Mrs. I. J. Edmundson, president conducted the afternoon business meeting. The song leader led the club song. Miss Lulu Monroe gave an interesting devotional on "Our World." Roll call was answered with "Some Faults of Dresses I Dislike."

Committee reports were given and several announcements were made. The club voted to donate $5 to the cancer fund and Mrs. Paul Mowry gave an interesting talk on "Styles That Fit the Individual." She used Mrs. Edmundson as her model and demonstrated style trends.

The May meeting place was not decided upon. Notification will be made through the calling committee.

Lost Belles Argument
SINGAPORE —(P)—St. Margaret school girls won a debate by insisting honesty is not the best policy—but they are not so sure they were right.

While they were arguing the point the boys from St. Andrew's school, thieves sneaked into a nearby room where their belongings were hanging and made off with $150 in cash and much personal property. The boys, who didn't debate as well, perhaps didn't lose a thing.

Life with the Tax Gremlins:

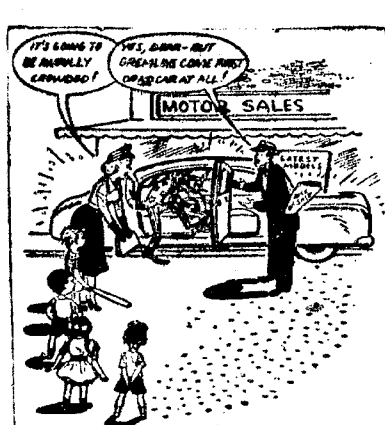

EDITOR'S NOTE: "Life With the Tax Gremlins" is a 12-part thumbnail story of the nation's complicated tax structure. The characters: Uncle Sam himself, his Gremlin, State and Local Tax Gremlins, and you—the taxpayers. It's from an "American Affairs" pamphlet published by the National Industrial Conference Board of New York, an independent, non-profit fact-finding institution supported by business, labor and other groups. Some of the articles include comment by Richard A. Mullens, Washington tax expert and author of NEA's annual "Income Tax Primer," which appears each year in the Sedalia Democrat.

The family car has to be shared with the Gremlins. They get in first.

E. T. Keller, President of Chrysler Corp., says: "Present tax rates make it impossible to get back to a real $1000 car—a car that isn't just a motor scooter."

The Tax Foundation, Inc. says: "The way the experts figure it, you pay anywhere from $355 to $466 in taxes—most of it hidden—when you buy a new car in the $1600 to $2000 price range. Altogether, it is estimated at least 206 separate tax transactions occur along the route of manufacture—from raw materials to shiny new auto."

James D. Mooney of Willys-Overland says: "The man who buys a car usually knows he is paying a federal excise tax of about $90 or more. Then there is a state or city sales tax that usually runs about three per cent of the price of the car, plus license plates and registration fees. But what the buyer doesn't think about is that the income and withholding taxes paid by the men who make and sell the vehicle are also a part of the car's selling price. Others are corporation taxes, property taxes, transportation taxes, etc."

Roll Call on 'Time Savers'

The Stokley club met on Tuesday, May 2nd at the home of Mrs. Guy Ballew. A contributive dinner was served at noon to 14 members and three visitors, Miss Lillian Watkins, Mrs. James Gunter and Miss Nannie Rose Harrison.

In the afternoon the meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Ballew and opened by reading the "Club Collect."

The devotional was read by Mrs. F. W. Winston. Roll call was answered with a "Time Saver I Use."

Mrs. Ballew gave a report on the council meeting she attended, also read the April News Letter. She then introduced Miss Watkins, who gave a short talk. The lecture concerned hints to better posture, on washing and ironing.

Mrs. Ballew read "Thoughts of Mother," and for the closing the Benediction was sung by the group. Meeting and games followed. The June meeting will be with Mrs. Lyle Green.

The National Geographic Society says that, contrary to general belief, only two important areas of Holland were flooded during the war.

This Year's Bond-Selling Campaign Will Stress Personal Savings Theme

THIS POSTER will carry 1950's savings bond slogan across the nation.

By Douglas Larsen
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Uncle Sam is all set with his annual drive to lure all loose dollars out of the mattress—the 1950 Savings Bond Campaign.

Slogan of this year's effort is "SAVE For Your Independence: Buy U. S. Savings Bonds." The intensive part of the drive will run from May 15 through July 4. The quota is the sale of $650,000,000 in Series E Bonds.

Newest aspect of this drive is the frank admission by Treasury officials that the annual government bond sales campaign is probably a permanent fixture. And from now, the basic sales appeal will stress bonds as personal savings. The purely patriotic appeal, which featured the great war bond drives and, to a lesser extent, the post-war bond drives, will be largely missing from this and future drives.

Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, in announcing the details of the 50 drive, reveals that U. S. citizens now hold $34,200,000,000 worth of outstanding Series E bonds. Monthly redemptions are running only five percent of this total. Total sales last year were $4,200,000,000, or just $16,000,000 less than the top post-war year of 1948.

Explaining the frank appeal on a pure savings basis, Snyder says: "Timing of the campaign lends itself to the signing up of new savers, especially young people finishing their education and embarking in business and professional careers. It will offer new opportunity to encourage the established saver to continue the habit of thrift, and to draw his attention to his current financial worth, and the wisdom of increasing the rate of growth in saving."

The usual high-powered hoopla has been cooked up by the Treasury's sales bond promotion staff for the campaign. President Truman and Snyder will formally open the drive May 15 with broadcasts on all the networks and with television shows. Movie theaters around the country are volunteering help, Hollywood has contributed some special films which will be shown during the campaign, and local and state volunteer agencies will help.

Centerpiece of the promotion will be 51 copies of the Liberty Bell which will be shown widely in each state, the District of Columbia, Alaska and Hawaii. Copper for the bells, which were made in France, was donated by U. S. copper companies, and the Ford Motor Company is donating the transportation to carry them around the country.

Each bell is an exact copy of the original Liberty Bell in Philadelphia, even to the crack. They are six feet high and weigh a ton.

Treasury officials are confident that the present prosperity of the country will permit the quota to be met quite easily. Last year's quota was $1,040,000,000, but the
